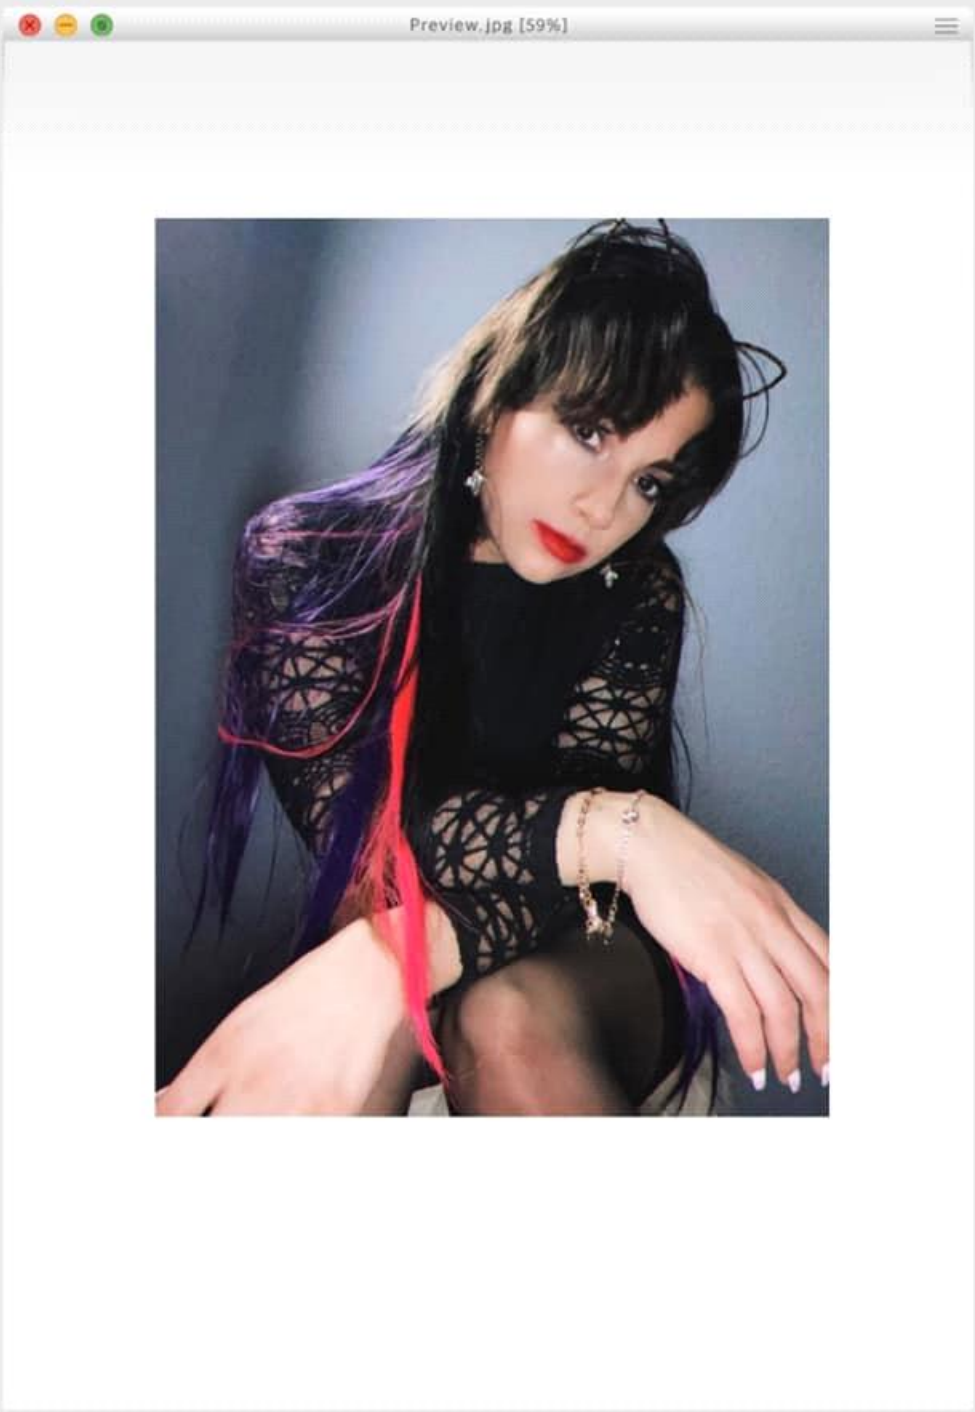
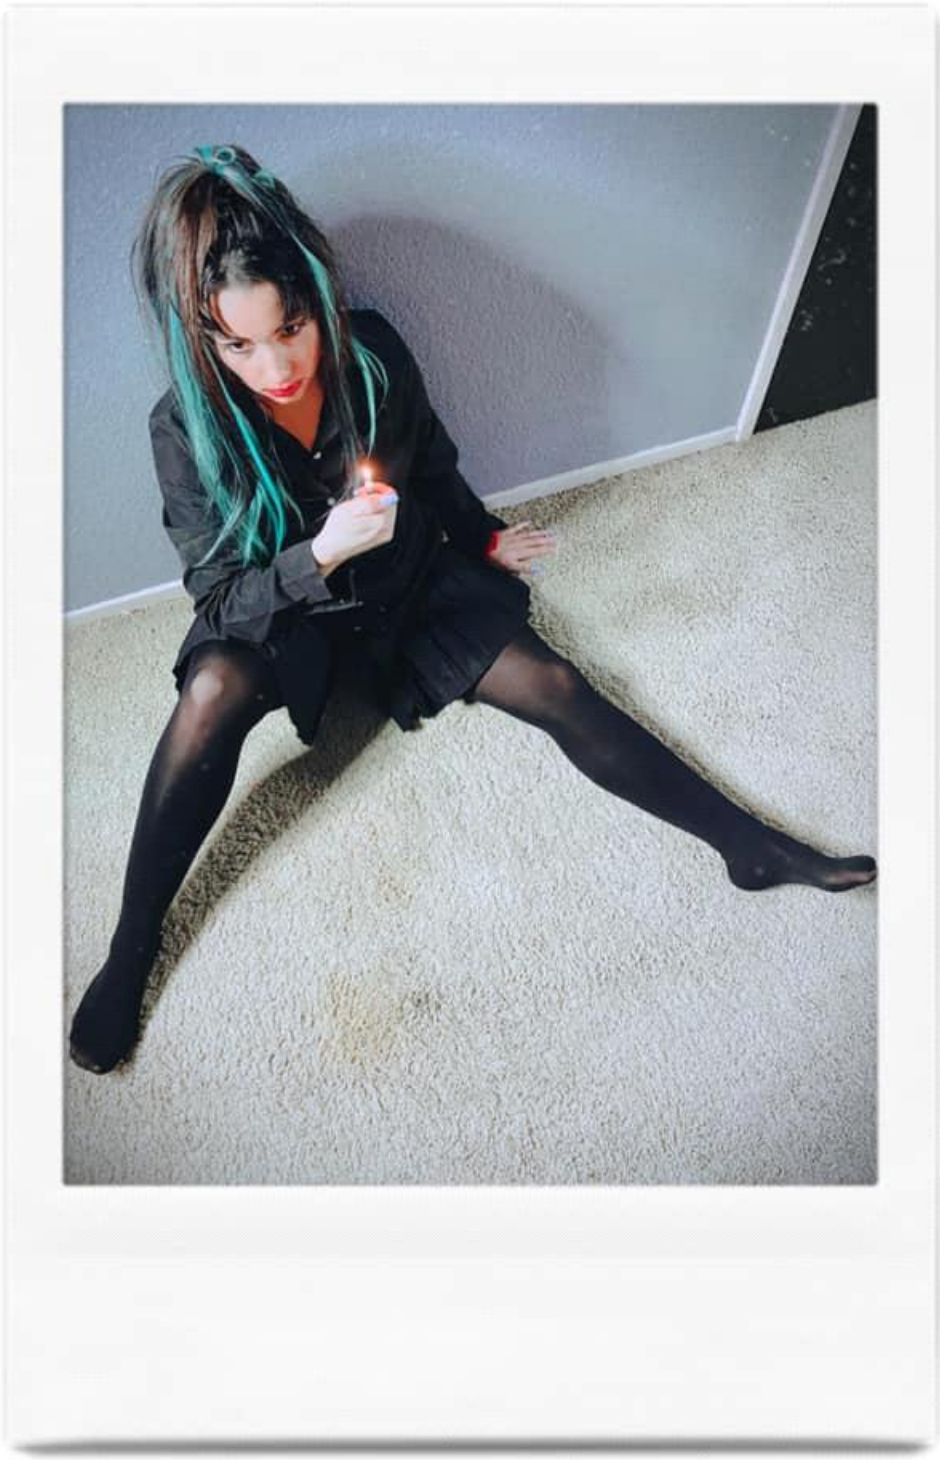
Fantasy Moon



By: Deanna Jaxine Stinson

A.K.A. Wish Fire



My Fantasy-
In my salvation is an empty

Space darker than the paint
Of the alphabet
Bleeding light and truth but
Hollow like the silence
Of shallow hope
And lost innocence
A fantasy of beauty
A euphoria of movement
And excitement
Turns truth from the heart
Of the ugliest Gods
Who would harm even angels
In their expectations of Everything
And I will starve
Him away from my soul
By blood and control
As he has taken away the words
I had because as I was taught to protect
My gods and it felt bad
Because he watches
From a high place
Away from the noise
A monster but never a man
Because he sleeps in the darkness
Where no one goes because none understand
Him
How he could
Do the things he has done
And undo them just like that
I could not even look at you
When I realized
The truth
If it’s not love
What else do you think I did anything for what do you speak of
When you mention god
So do not talk
Unless you know him like I have said
And I still believe
In that no matter what you say
You will be ate then and nothing else
Even though I as well am
Nothing to him
but blood and butterflies

Coming back to you
To be used
Where you would choose
Whom to make love with
For pleasure and torment
Whomever you wish too
And I wish to torment you
Instead with the secrets
From your head
That you spilled all
Over me
And I can’t wait to
Die to confront
You with your own
Lies
And be dead gone
Away too into ether and air
And there is no absolution
But
They don’t know enough
To be fair like I do
About you
like how you will
Just take what you
Want no matter the consequences
You don’t have to be wise enough
To outsmart him but he is fast
And I will kill you before you ever lay hands on me again if you try to go back there again
Like you want to
I will kill him until he is dead
To pay him back
All the blood he has shed
And get back what I have bled
Forever and ever
Love Wish Fire
Amen

Cassie : Coffee Goddess

By Deanna Jaxine Stinson aka Wish Fire

Halo Paranormal Investigations

Cassie: Coffee Goddess

My favorite song that the artist called Cassie sings is called Me & You. It is such a good dance song and I have been loving on it for years. She also has a new song out with @realblackcoffee on Instagram called "Time." It's pretty good, you should check it out. His album is called SUBCONCIOUSLY!

Her music and style is smooth, moist, soft and deliciously- literally like coffee. She inspires me with her positive energy and good vibes! Her instagram is filled up with beauty & music shots. Because of this, I am turning her into the Coffee Goddess.

According to folklore, The divinity of coffee, tea, and other caffeinated drinks or foods is named Caffeina & is the Roman goddess of energy, stamina, and determination. She is usually portrayed as a beautiful woman rising (dancing) from a coffee cup,, who blesses us with her potions clarity and vitality. She has the power to inspire; just like Cassie's music does! (That's how it makes me feel when I am dancing).

Cassie: Coffee Goddess

Coffee was first thought to be discovered as a berry growing on plants. It was noticed as a stimulate by goats, who were gnawing on the branches- probably in Ethiopia by a god or goddess by the name of Kaldi, who was a goat herder and brought the research to a local monastery, where it was turned into a potent drink.

By the 15th century, crops were grown in the Yemeni district of Arabia and by the 16th century it was known in Persia, Egypt, Syria, and Turkey. Soon after, coffee shops began to become popular and a widespread coffee culture was born, forever gracing history to this day.

Coffee houses than became to be a popular place for artists, creators and musicians. Still today, many host live singers, entertainment, books and comedy acts. Coffee helps people feel good and have a spiritual understanding & love of the world.

Cassie: Coffee Goddess

Because coffee is a rich black color, by the time it came to our attention, it was regarded by some as an invention of the devil and several people tried to outlaw and ban it before Pope Clement the eighth gave the final decision that it was safe for spiritual consumption. It was however still feared in Venice, even up to the 1600's.

Coffee is a beautiful gift to us, which we are lucky to have, especially considering all the forces that tried to destroy it for lack of understanding. It just goes to show you that hate is definitely a misunderstood emotion and false illusion which dooms the mind to sleep. Drink some coffee and be blessed to wake up, both spiritually and mentally!!

Thank you to all the world & angels who brought coffee to my lips to be drank almost everyday in several different variations and elixirs. I forever bless all the gods and goddesses of coffee, clarity, resurrection and vitality with love and light, protection eternal by the authority of Wish Fire & all those in my secret society- spiritual and physical beings of love.

BLESSINGS FOREVER

LOVE WISH FIRE XOXOXO

In mythology, there is a strong importance played on threads, string, fate & mystery. The Greek goddess Athena is known to be the best threader from ancient Greece and the fates control our life spans through weaving. Spiders create silken threads, sheep making beautiful wool and the moon shimmers a reflection onto shiny fabrics made to sparkle in the night time.

Whitney Eve Port is a fashion goddess. She has been in the eye of style since her youth and continues to prove her passion for clothes and elegance still today! Because of all the magic involved in what we wear, she fits the design of a remarkable soul, who displays an easy love for clothing and accessories. Always willing to experience not only wearing a gorgeous ensemble, but she inspires woman with her kind demeanor and excellent professionalism.

Some special legends from the past regarding clothing have continued to leave a permanent mark, not only on culture and society as well- but that of history and respect. This spiritual endeavor takes a pure heart and comfortable sense of being to full envelope the wonder of being- through fashion. Fashion not only will continue to tell us stories through time, but keep pieces of life immortalized in photographs and memories, forsaking age and mortality forever.

There are three fates who spin the threads of life;

Clotho; who spins the threads

and

Lachesis; who cuts the fabric

also, last but, not least- the one who sews it all together;

Atropos

Whitney Eve Port ::: Fashion Goddess

In fact, using her last name as a sign of heritage- we can even start from the occult mythology of Eve herself;

who was thought in Christian folklore to be naked and was not clothed, until she was shamed by the eyes of God himself.

She was formed herself by the Rib of Adam; the first man.

Evening represents the night being clothed in darkness, mystery and divinity.

In German mythology, Holda has the title for weaving fashion for Goddesses and Humans alike.

In China, The phrase "a goddess's robe is seamless" passed into an idiom to express perfect workmanship. This idiom is also used to signify a smooth plan.

Whitney Eve Port ::: Fashion Goddess

Whatever art she creates with her fashion, I will be sure to support her as she has proven herself to be a strong individual that continues to shape the future of human beings through her passions and life.

Because of her everlasting love for fashion in the name of feminine beauty;

I therefore bless her soul with eternal luck, light & protection

By all the gods, angels and spirits of the Wolfs have a long supernatural history based in occult foundations. The whole place of Rome was built on the spiritual conception of wolfs; According to folklore, Romulus and Remus are twin brothers whose story tells the events that led to the founding of the city of Rome and the Roman Kingdom. The murder of Remus by his brother, along with other tales has created several legendary cultural philosophies in history.

In fact, dogs are deeply woven into ancient times and modern as well. Several people around the globe have dogs as pets and even considered as family by the most kind animal lovers.

However, it wasn't always the case that they were so caring. Dogs are genetically wolves in their wildest forms of being. They symbolize untamed nature, fierce loyalty and display a protective pact mentality.

There are many people who inspire my taste for the wolf spirit in our culture today. I have turned three artists as mentioned above into wolves, in order to honor and protect them as well. Sssniperwolf, Agnes Bruckner & Billie Eilish have all brought attention to them in several different ways.

Because they can also symbolize the devil, they were richly associated with woman all throughout the ages. They soon became very feared with the widespread belief in Christianity and all the metaphors for the predators of the world; which of course was taken literally by the physical thinkers.

SSSniperwolf Agnes Bruckner & Billie Eilish: Wolf Goddesses

The wolf spirit can guide you which these woman do in our society in a positive way. Billie is frequently posting media of her dogs, spreading awareness and hope! Sssniperwolf howls at the end of every video she does as she offers you to join her wolf pack of friends and Agnes Bruckner played the part of a werewolf in one of my favorite movies; soundtrack and all: Blood & Chocolate. She is also a fierce mother who literally posts her kids all day and night on Instagram and wolves are known to be supernatural moms!

The wolf is also associated with spiritual journies, strength & power over mortals. In fact, they were so feared that in most fairy tales concerning them; they play the villains. They are shapeshifters and can be werewolves or sweet puppies!

All these woman have great respect, honor and awe for the wolf spirit and so I am blessing them forever in my name, by the spiritual authority of Gods, angels and humans alike, through my secret society in the name of pure love, luck and eternal protection with healing & beauty forever.

Kylie Jenner as the Sugar Goddess

Kylie Jenner is a popular entrepreneur that mixes together different fragrances and such to make beauty elixirs. She sells a lot of sugar scrubs- which is what is on my mind lately- SUGAR!

SO I AM TURNING HER INTO THE SUGAR GODDESS TO EXPLAIN WHY SUGAR IS MEANT TO BE USED ON YOUR BODY AND NOT INSIDE!

Not to say, having occasional treats will kill you, but there is an overabundance of sugar purchased in America.

Sugar is given to the dead as an offering as it smells so fragrant.

Combine sugar with oil to make a good body scrub that can be used all over from head to toes.

I also love how she is a leo and it seems she glows in her pictures from the inside out ESPECIALLY in the sun- which is so important to soak up spiritually- but, can be bad for our bodies- so it's good to do a sugar scrub, wear oils and sunscreen if you can!

My fav thing she did was her "rise and shine" song- did she realize how good it was omg??!!

Also, one of her signature emojis is a white heart!

How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth! (bible)

White light is pure & protecting to all those who envision it (also, it is strongly tied in to the angel Metatron)

Sugar is used in magick as an attractor for sweet things, but in overabundance can bring in ants or other forms of bad luck.

Use sugar in moderation- it also rots your teeth- which is directly tied to your heart, your karma and so much more.

Envision the white light whenever you are near pure white sugar to help your spirit tune into this beautiful frequency and you can also counteract the staining of sugar on your teeth by adding hydrogen peroxide to your mouthwashes.

Sugar magick is popularly used in love and friendships in various ways to create harmony. One such way is quite literally through gifts of candy, cakes and other sugary goodies. It will create a special bond between the giver and receiver- which is strengthened in love. Yet, another way is through magick, by using sugar as an artistic metephor, an etheric offering for the Gods to enjoy as well- but, only if given from a pure heart.

Having too much sugar, can be like a spiritual simulation for being greedy, as your face and body will give out under the ugliness of your actions.

Sugar is quite powerful and runs through our lives in so many unforseen ways- just like how it's mixed up with cakes and cookies like a poison, which is colored, flavored and hidden.

Politically as well, sugar motivates our governments, jobs and even land usages in THE SAME WAYS.

Brazil is said to be the biggest supplier of sugar right now! (2021)

Sugar is a plant.

One goddess in Brazil who watches over the sugar crops resides at a sanctuary called Casa de Iemanjá, of a blue-and-white-painted -temple fronted by a life-size sculpture of the mermaid deity, done up in seashells and shards of mirror. People believe they must make offerings in this country still to ensure protection of the lands forever- which must be working as a good luck charm, because Brazil is always in lead for sugar production. There are many sea goddesses in fact, which help with the sugar crops- which is also another example of using it with water and oil as a scrub, for best benefits.

The princess of dogs takes after her family, who also has a huge spiritual concern for the good welfare of dogs. Her family is very well known for all their kind deeds to many, especially in honor of dogs.

This legacy can be continued through all the legends of dogs worldwide: who represent love, loyalty and death. They are perfectly aligned with floral themes as well and feminine spiritual principles of grace & nurturing.

The spirit of the dog can heal loneliness, depression and restlessness; not to mention that they see through spiritual and physical disease as well.

Dogs that we have in life are always with us as each of their spirits is unique, blessed and special!

Pandora Vanderpump: Princess of Dogs

There are many breeds of dog; but, all are said to be some form of the wolf.

The wolf is known as the wild mother who protects her nature home from evil, destruction and disrespect towards everything under her moonlight.

Due to the cultural shifting of perceptions of women throughout history; the wolf also became the symbol for the devil in its hunting form! As the wolf will starve for long periods of time and stalk before making a kill.

Being alone can be very hard for a wolf; that's why dogs are known as pack animals- together they create a spiritual bond which feels friendly, comforting and warm.

Pandora Vanderpump: Princess of Dogs

The wolf leads us down many paths in time. Wolves are hard to trust because they are so stealthy, strong (they kill with their bites) and seem to have a special pact with darkness and death- which is super human.

Potatoes represent love!

They are also used for protection in magic rituals!

They can be found in many different varieties and colors around the world.

Potatoes's Magickal Properties Grounding: After meditation or magickal work, eat potatoes to ground yourself back into reality.

The potato is an American root vegetable. It was first introduced into Europe in the 1500s and features strongly in the history of both Ireland and the United States due to the Great Potato Famine of the mid-1800s (which reduced the population of Ireland by up to a quarter through starvation, disease and emigration and the US saw a huge influx of immigration from Ireland!)

Slices of raw potato can be placed on skin inflammations and burns for quick relief. They can help also to ease toothaches and stomach pains.

Armenia's potato queendom: it's a female-dominated industry:

jam-news.net/queens-of-potatoes/

Armenia's potato crop (the "second bread" of the Caucasus and Central Asia) has remained essential to its food security, second in importance only to the primary staple of wheat. From 1992 to 2007, annual per capita production of potatoes roughly doubled, from 90 to 180 kilograms, very high by world standards (FAOSTAT).

www.potatopro.com/armenia/potato-statistics

"The Inca Indians in Peru were the first to cultivate potatoes around 8,000 BC to 5,000 B.C. In 1536 Spanish Conquistadors conquered Peru, discovered the flavors of the potato, and carried them to Europe. Sir Walter Raleigh introduced potatoes to Ireland in 1589 on the 40,000 acres of land near Cork."

She is the potato goddess as a Libra, who represents love in this sign and for the belief that potatoes help air signs stay grounded in the spiritual and physical balance of our lives! Which is very important for air signs(I'm libra sun & libra rising.)

Because potatoes have a strong tie to politics and governments, they are an important representation of power at play in modern times as well as the history left behind in the past AND FUTURE!

Hilary Duff

"Sparks Lyrics"

[Verse 1]

I can't hear a single word

Just know you're talking, 'cause your lips keep moving

Everything I thought I learned goes out the window

All I want is one thing

[Pre-Chorus]

You can promise castles, treasures, babies, I don't care

'Cause for now, you're just enough for me, I want you near

Like a fairytale to feel your breath right on my neck

You remember what I love, so baby, take me back

[Chorus]

Turn the lights down low and kiss me in the dark

'Cause when you're touching me, baby, I see sparks

You make my heart go

You, you, you make my heart go

You, you, you make my heart go

[Verse 2]

Ticking-tocking, like a bomb

Throws me back to when I had you closer

Skin to skin, we get it on

Without the love, I feel you going bolder

[Pre-Chorus]

You can promise castles, treasures, babies, I don't care

'Cause for now, you're just enough for me, I want you near

Like a fairytale to feel your breath right on my neck

You remember what I love, so baby, take me back

Hilary Duff: Sparks Goddess

plural noun: sparks

1.

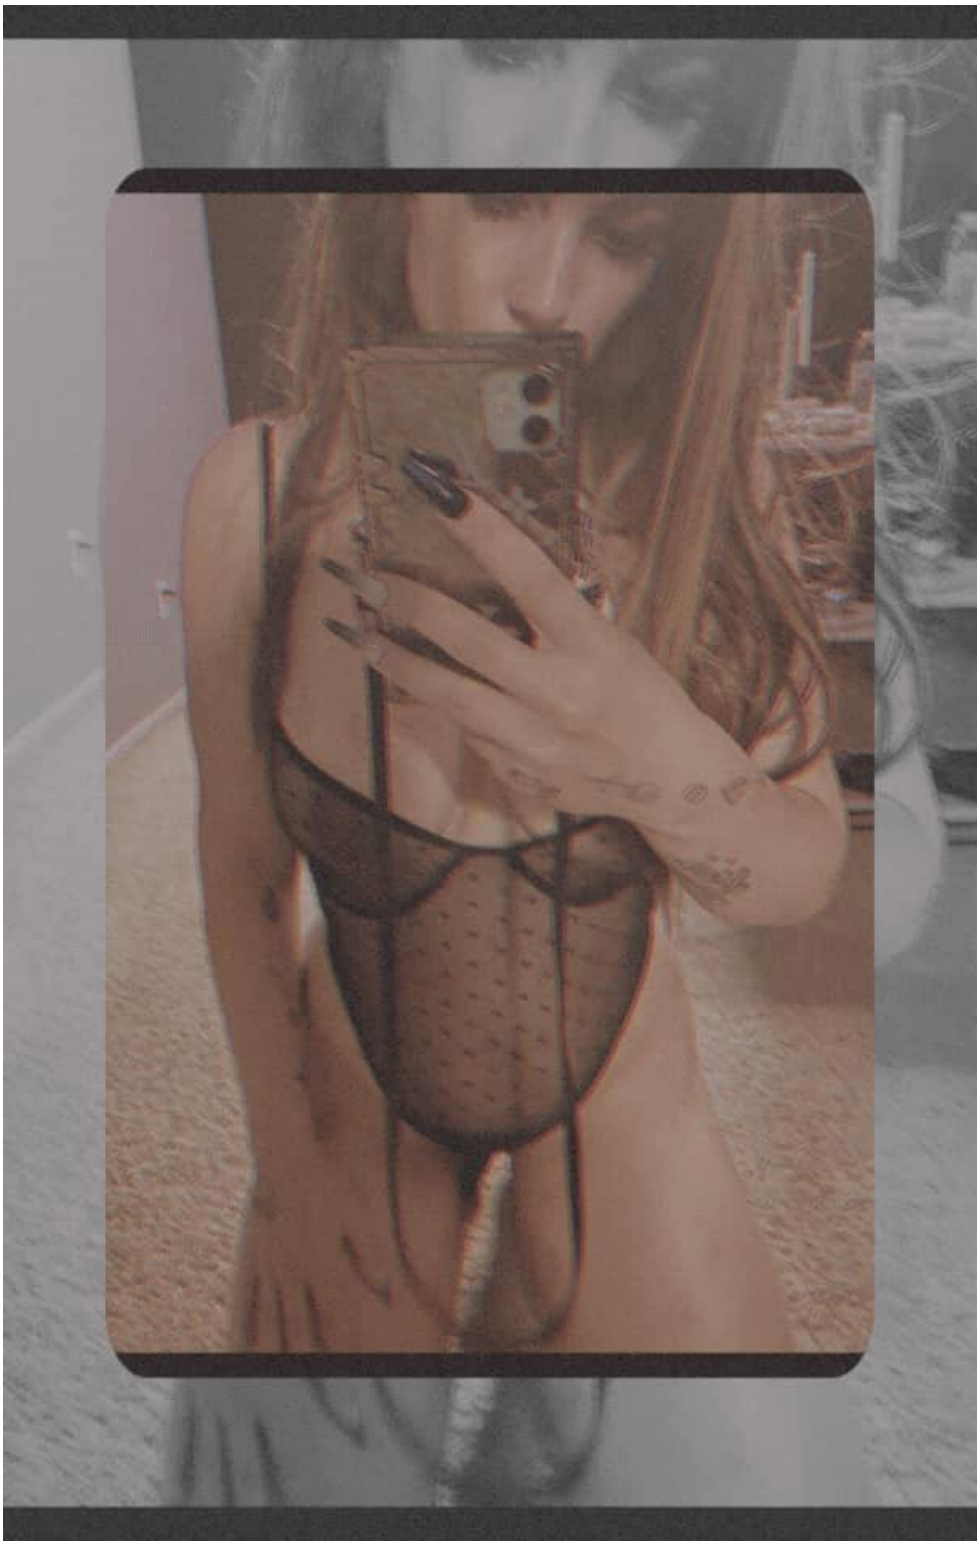
a small fiery particle thrown off from a fire, alight in ashes, or produced by striking together two hard surfaces such as stone or metal.

"a log fire was sending sparks onto the rug"

2.

a trace of a specified quality or intense feeling.

"a tiny spark of anger flared within her"



((G)I-DLE) ::: Lion Dancers::: Myths ::: Legends :::

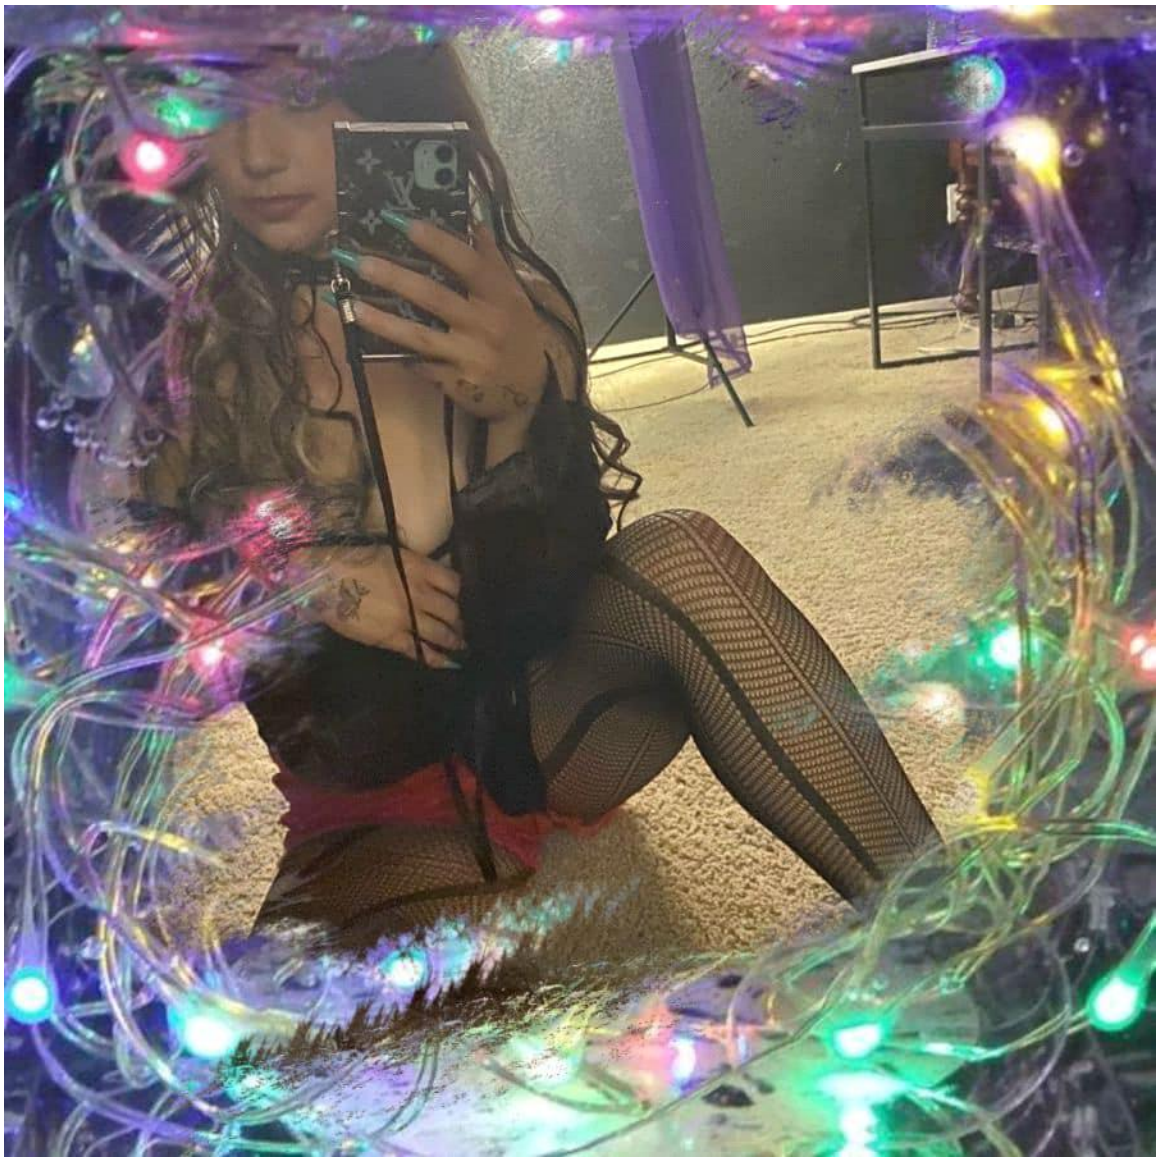
GIDLE is a pop group that sings popular dance songs. My two favorites right now are "Lion" and "Oh My God."

In ancient times, oracles used to dance at the temples in order to bring good luck and forsee the future through fashion, art & design by higher beings for spiritual enlightenment.

The lion is the ultimate animal symbol of the solar king deity royal energy and brings out a bright orange fire, which signifies wealth, desire and excellent fortune.

To have the spirit of the lion cross your path can be a good omen, unless you have been hiding in the dark, as they will bring out the darkness with their claws and sharp piercing wisdom and beauty, which is fast and powerful.

The sun is the ultimate source of light and fire energy, of life and blood- Apollo in greek mythology, God of the sun- signifies this union as well. He is the master of dancers, prophets & musicians.



((G)I-DLE) ::: Lion Dancers::: Myths ::: Legends :::

A source of light is ultimate love & thoughtful reflection, as the lion knows it's right is to kill and overturn the wicked, who lurk somewhere in the darkness.

All colors, despite their varying appearances and temperatures, are ultimately the same as one another- light.

So, when used together, they create a perfect harmony, which elevates the magic of immortality.

Lions also have a richly hidden history in Vampire mythology, for example, in the bible, refrences such as ... and blood, their bite... could also be interpreted as vampirism- enchantment, seduction and authority- divine order and brilliance.

Numbers 23:24 Behold, the people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion, not resting until they devour their prey and drink the blood of the slain." The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till it devours its prey and drinks the blood of its victims."

These people rise up like a lioness, like a majestic lion rousing itself. They refuse to rest until they have feasted on prey, drinking the blood of the slaughtered!”

(sort of like the blood red sky---) which is also eternal and gorgeous as well, a golden and silver shimmer of lavish luxurious Heavenly land, which spans into forever.

The expression of the body is important, when it relates to the element of fire, because by moving your physical self, you are burning and transforming the old, like going through a portal, hunting time for the future and planning the next move, in able to eat the hearts of their prey, i assume....

The sun represents the fire element in alchemy and together with blood, is the references to the lion animal and it's legendary hair, which is glorious and magical- which is also symbolic of a divine birthright- like a halo- or crown, where one is destined to rule by the right of heritage and destiny.

Millennial Pop Magic

I was born in 86. The first CDs & cassette tapes that I had were Garth Brooks (the one with friends in low places), Janet Jackson, Britney Spears, Hanson, Meatloaf, Cranberries & Enya. I never bought those- they were popular when I was young and given to me because I loved music and would dance and run around all day.

When I was a pre teen and teenager and was able to purchase, I became fascinated with pop, bubble gum, flowery, punk and dance beats. So, my favs were Mandy Moore, Avril Lavigne, Britney Spears, & Blink 182- I liked alot but, they never seemed to reply to letters or messages, even to this day i swear it's strange af lol, so I guess it just faded off.

I did write letters to Anne Rice, a fantasy paranormal author when I was young and she answered me with e-mails and even one time, I told her that I had a book report on one of her books and she asked what the questions were and I replied my homework assignment. She answered all the qs in legnth, I got an A of course and my teacher was also fascinated to read the reports.

Millennial Pop Magic

Now I have a wide variety of favs of courzse, I don't want to forget anyone but, they include the artists in former articles, like Billie Eilish, Demi Lovato, Dua Lipa, Selena Gomez, Avril Lavigne, Charli XCX, Britney Spears, Taylor Swift & so many more (forgive if i forget rn) . It's just the type of beats and lyrics which i can relate to- which also alot of others can as well, and it brings healing.

When I was growing up, pop music was so wildly important to me because I have been through horrible sexual and abusive situations as a child and the media would bring up conversations with the pop girls, which no one around me was having- abt body issues, virginity, sex etc and i found spiritual strength through their words and actions.

One of the most important themes in the world- is kindness, because it's light and it multiplies like numbers, infinitely. Just because someone looks fine, does not mean that inside they are. I love these women so much because even in their darkness, they taught me expression, love, friendship & strength.

And to me- beauty is about being open and honest, kind and loving-of course not everyone can reach that idea of perfection, but we can learn how to express, forgive & heal from each other and move forward in harmony.

God Bless XX

Unicorn Goddess Legends:

Charli Xcx

Pop Star Unicorn Goddess:::

A Unicorn is a being of light energy, which can range in tones and colors- depicting different spiritual meanings. They are usually drawn as a white horse with a spiral horn, twisting into ocean. They can also be any horned animal; like a narwhal or even a Pegasus.

Unicorns are pure of heart and love energy because they come from divine places in other realms, where they stay away from mortals at best, unless they sense someone who is pure of heart around- then they will appear and bless as a sign of divine cosmic order.

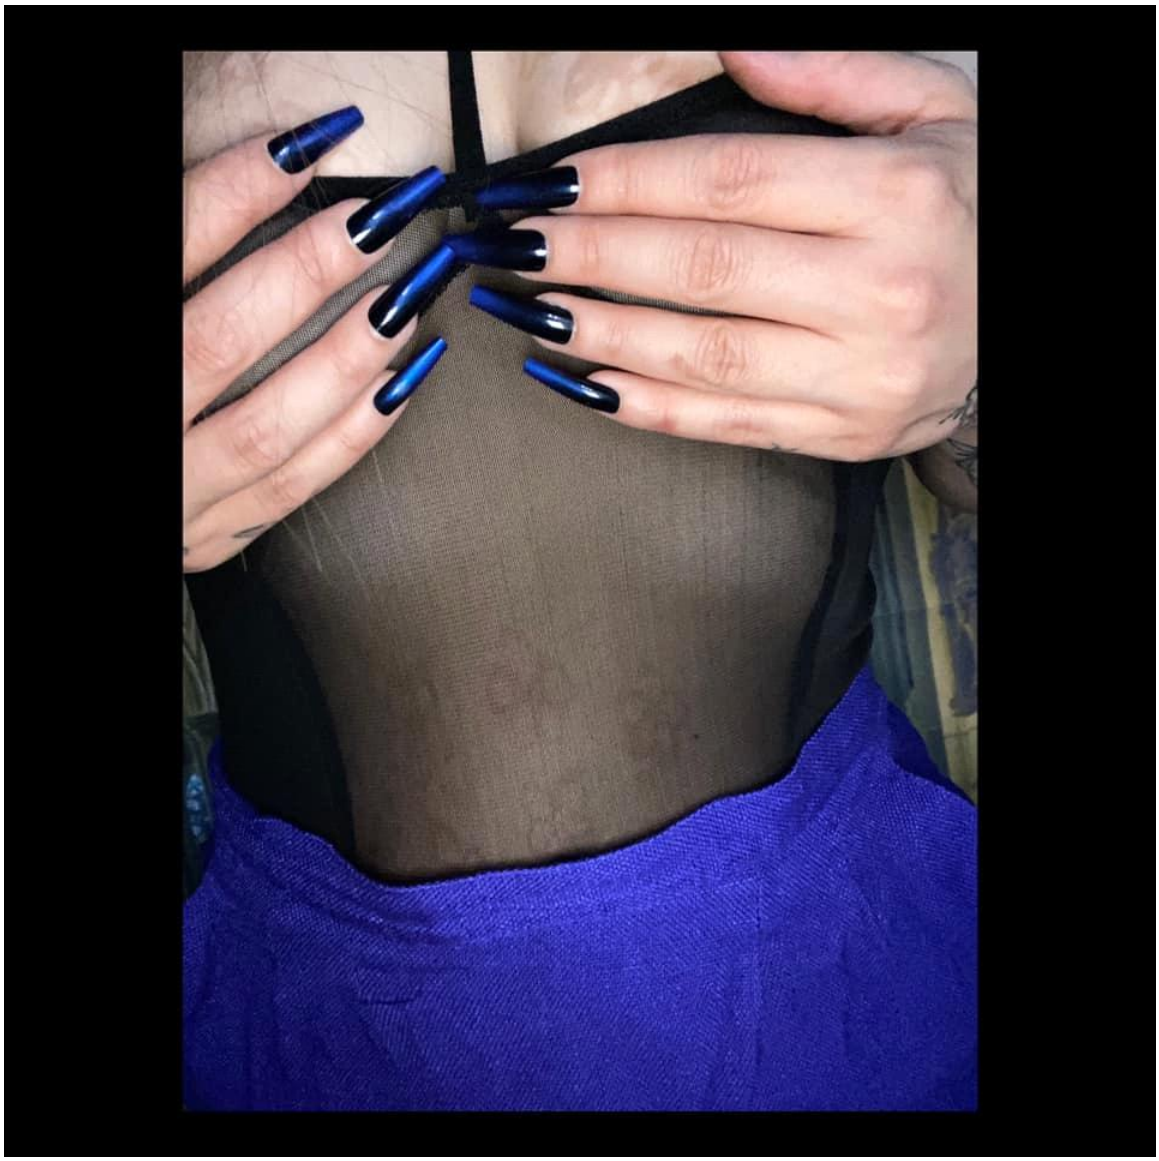
Charli XCX has unicorn vibes because she represents herself as a spiritual and beautiful being. Her song "White Mercedes" reminds me of unicorns because it is about chasing after something you will most likely not get, unless you are really lucky.

Unicorn Goddess Legends:::

In Dreams

Unicorns are an excellent indicator of good fortune arriving. However, if the unicorn looks sick or stressed out- than it is a warning to protect yourself from evil that may be coming towards you from another time and place; which they can see into very clearly.

Unicorns can also indicate that your wishes are coming true. They are a popular fantasy animal because they represent harmony, uniqueness, rarity & true love.



Unicorn Goddess Legends:::

In myth, they have helped many powerful hero's conquer dark monsters; they oftentimes appear from Heaven to display the favoritism of the gods towards someone, as a sign of peace.

They are frequently associated with Zeus, Hercules, and many princess in enchanted fairy tale- because they can transverse the many different dimensions in fantasy and reality very easily.

If you need aid with an important spiritual task- call on the spirit of the unicorn to guide you and expect to receive wisdom in several forms, such as signs, dreams, synchronicities and more all around you.

Perfect Designs

According to the online dictionary- perfection is described as having completeness, timing, and quality as good as it gets. For these reasons, the art of perfection has become a topic for fierce discussion because there are so many ways in which it can be applied and also confused.

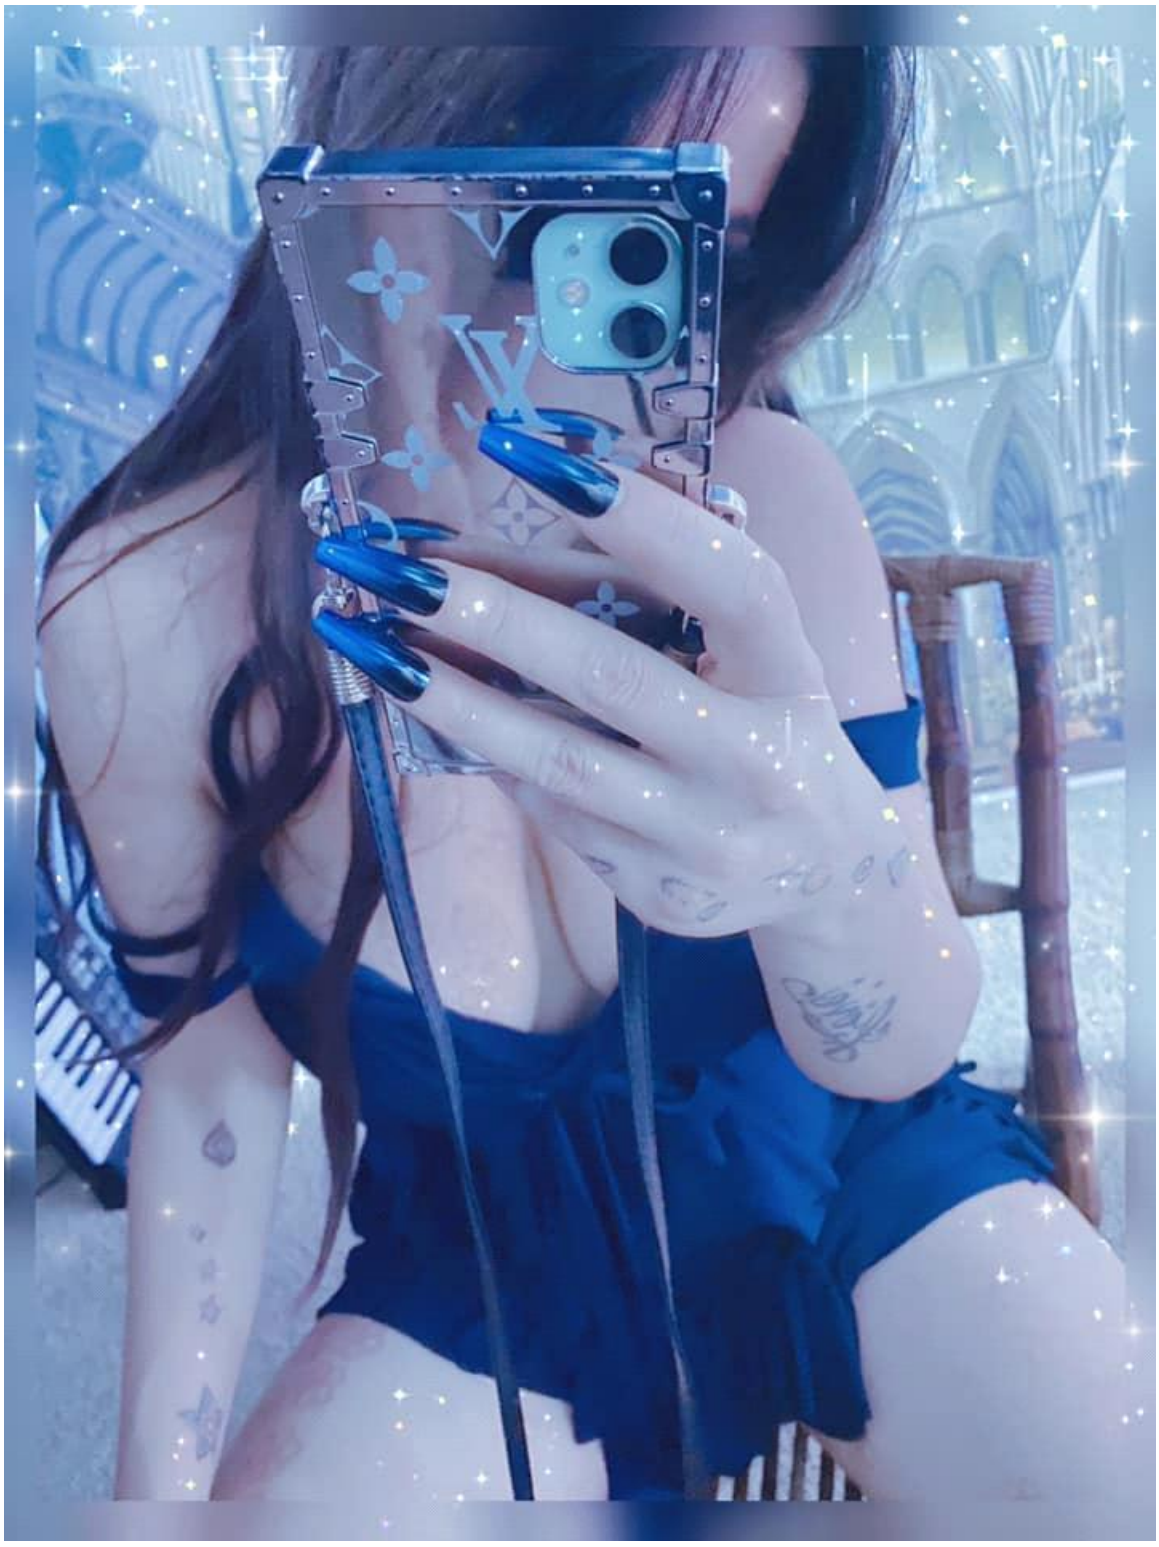
Shapes are like bows which tie up life energy into elements of spiritual matter and design, such as the cross warding evil and activated by the blood of Jesus. There are several symbols in the world thought to ward evil and bring protection, bestow blessings and grant wishes. But, in all differences- there is still love, which is the highest possible connection to the light energy, which fills us with life and resurrections.

We can also begin and end any movement at our discretions- whether it is drawing, driving, exercising- anything which moves us will shape us, spiritually, physically and by the universe in time and truth forever.

Perfect Designs

Spirals are an example of a longstanding symbol which is a connection point from one beggining to the next, which is continuous- like walking up a spiral staircase, for example. Even though it can continue on to infinity, it is still perfect in design, as it exists in several dimensions and planes as energy, knowledge and purpose.

Another example of a perfect design is life- that means all the shapes of an embryo- an egg, expanding, growing, transforming matter and Earth into supernatural love and fantastic beauty. It is a very divine time in our lives- the gift of new life is very special and miraculously and the design can be summoned up at one point in time- the point where we broke apart and became love, and it was eternal.



I bless everyone in their families right now with health, wealth, abundance, happiness, love and beauty. May all the angels watch over you and all the precious designs you make and bless us all in the light of God's and the Goddesses- heartbeats in harmony.

Avril Lavigne: Blood Rose Goddess

True love is defined as something immortal and holy. It is something that mirrors the power of the Gods themselves. Blood is linked to life everlasting, because it flows through our veins into our children forever and so forth. Blood can carry spiritual memories of love as well, which can be decoded through dream work and symbolic interpretations.

Roses have many different meanings throughout the world, but they still exist in our concious and subconcious as well, imprinted into the designs left before us. A spiritual example would be Jesus bleeding upon his crucifixtion by a crown of red roses on his crown.

People do something similar to ward evil and bring luck through love by tattoos- which is a blood ritual. Avril has really cute tattoos and is frequently photographed with the details. She has so many, so you will google them and see lots of photos:

Avril Lavigne: Blood Rose Goddess

red- true love

orange- energy

yellow- friendships

green- excellence

blue- daydreams

purple- royal love/nightmares

black- death/life/rebirth

white- purity/devotion/intention

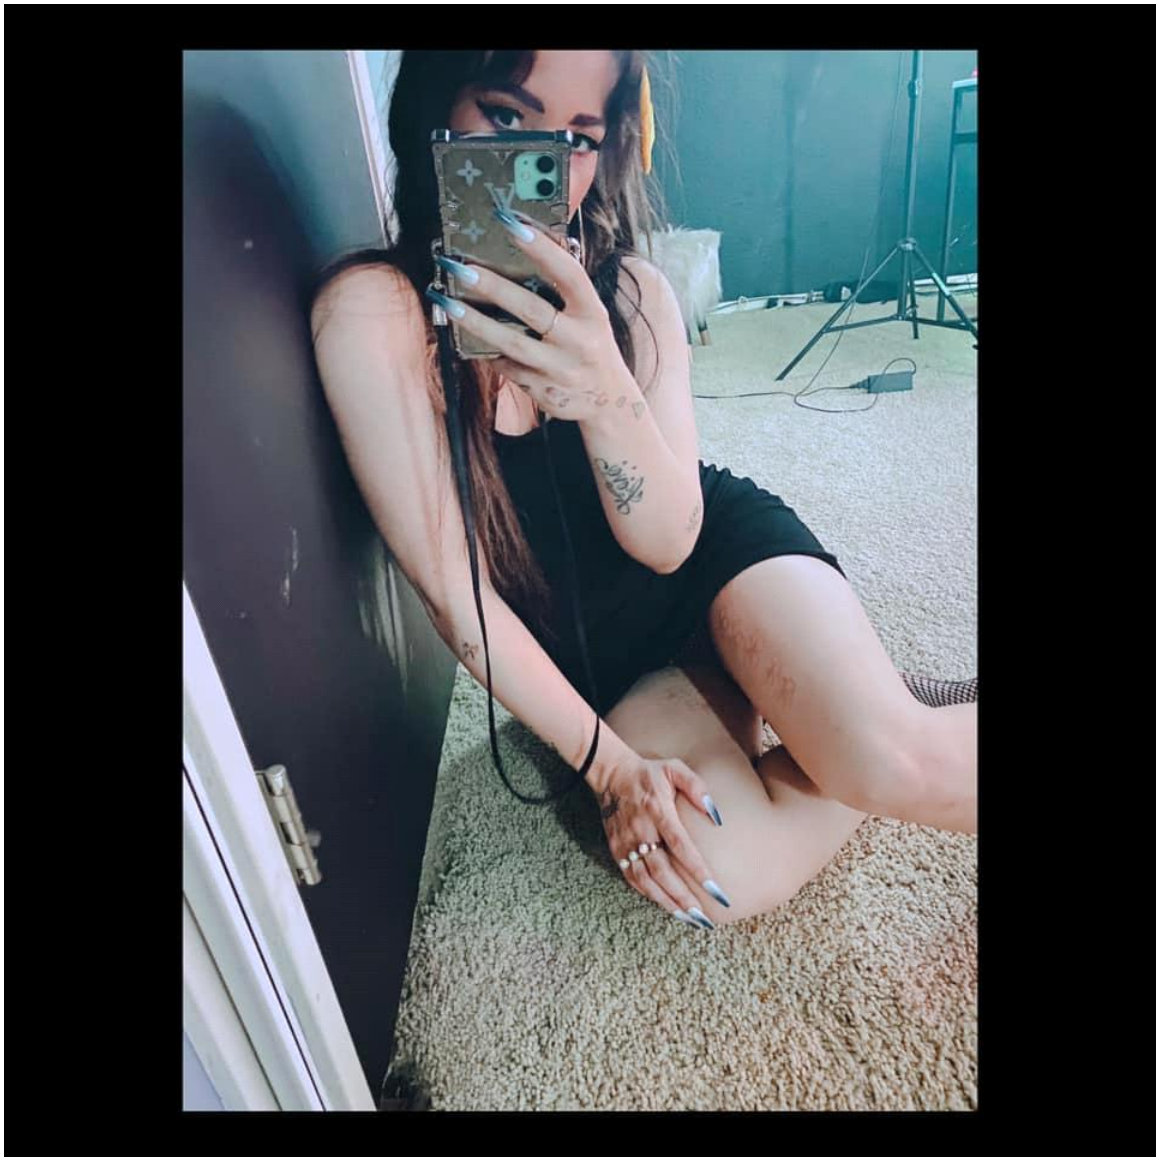
gold- divine truth, angels, wealth

silver- premonitions, luck, feminine grace

Avril Lavigne: Blood Rose Goddess

In mythology, several goddesses are associated with roses; most beauty & love goddesses of course, but also well known spiritual movements became centered around these people, so the symbol itself is very powerful in all forms....

Aphrodite is an example of a goddess who is represented by the red rose. She has a nurturing & also sexual spirit. Other symbols of love are of the air- so the rose is really a connection through time and a bridge to the women of the past. There are male gods who represent love, but they are rarely depicted with flowers- rather yet with women, whom can be known to be a symbol of a flower through their sexual organs as nature mimics the wild by pollination & fertility.



Roses naturally ward away evil because they are for love, overall and demons are cast out by the strength of it's beauty. When people say love is a religion, it's because it's fully consuming, like a fire and will burn away to ashes all else in your life- by the purity of the rose and by blood i bless you as well as my secret society, to all who read and are touched by these words as well.

Alligators & crocodiles are very similar. They both live in bodies of water. The difference is that alligators live in fresh water & crocodiles in salt water. Alligators are darker in color, varying tones of black, to greys and crocodiles are more brown & olive.

They eat other animals of almost any variety. They don't chew their food, but rather will attack and kill in one bite. This makes them very stealthy & dangerous creatures. They will watch their prey by putting their eyes above the water.

Spiritually, they represent military power & strategy. They can eat those who aren't welcome into the presence of the Gods. The ancient Mayan & Aztecs worshipped them as gatekeepers to the underworld.

In Egypt, The Crocodile Gods were soul- or sol- sun centered religious teachers.

Crocodile & Alligator Legends

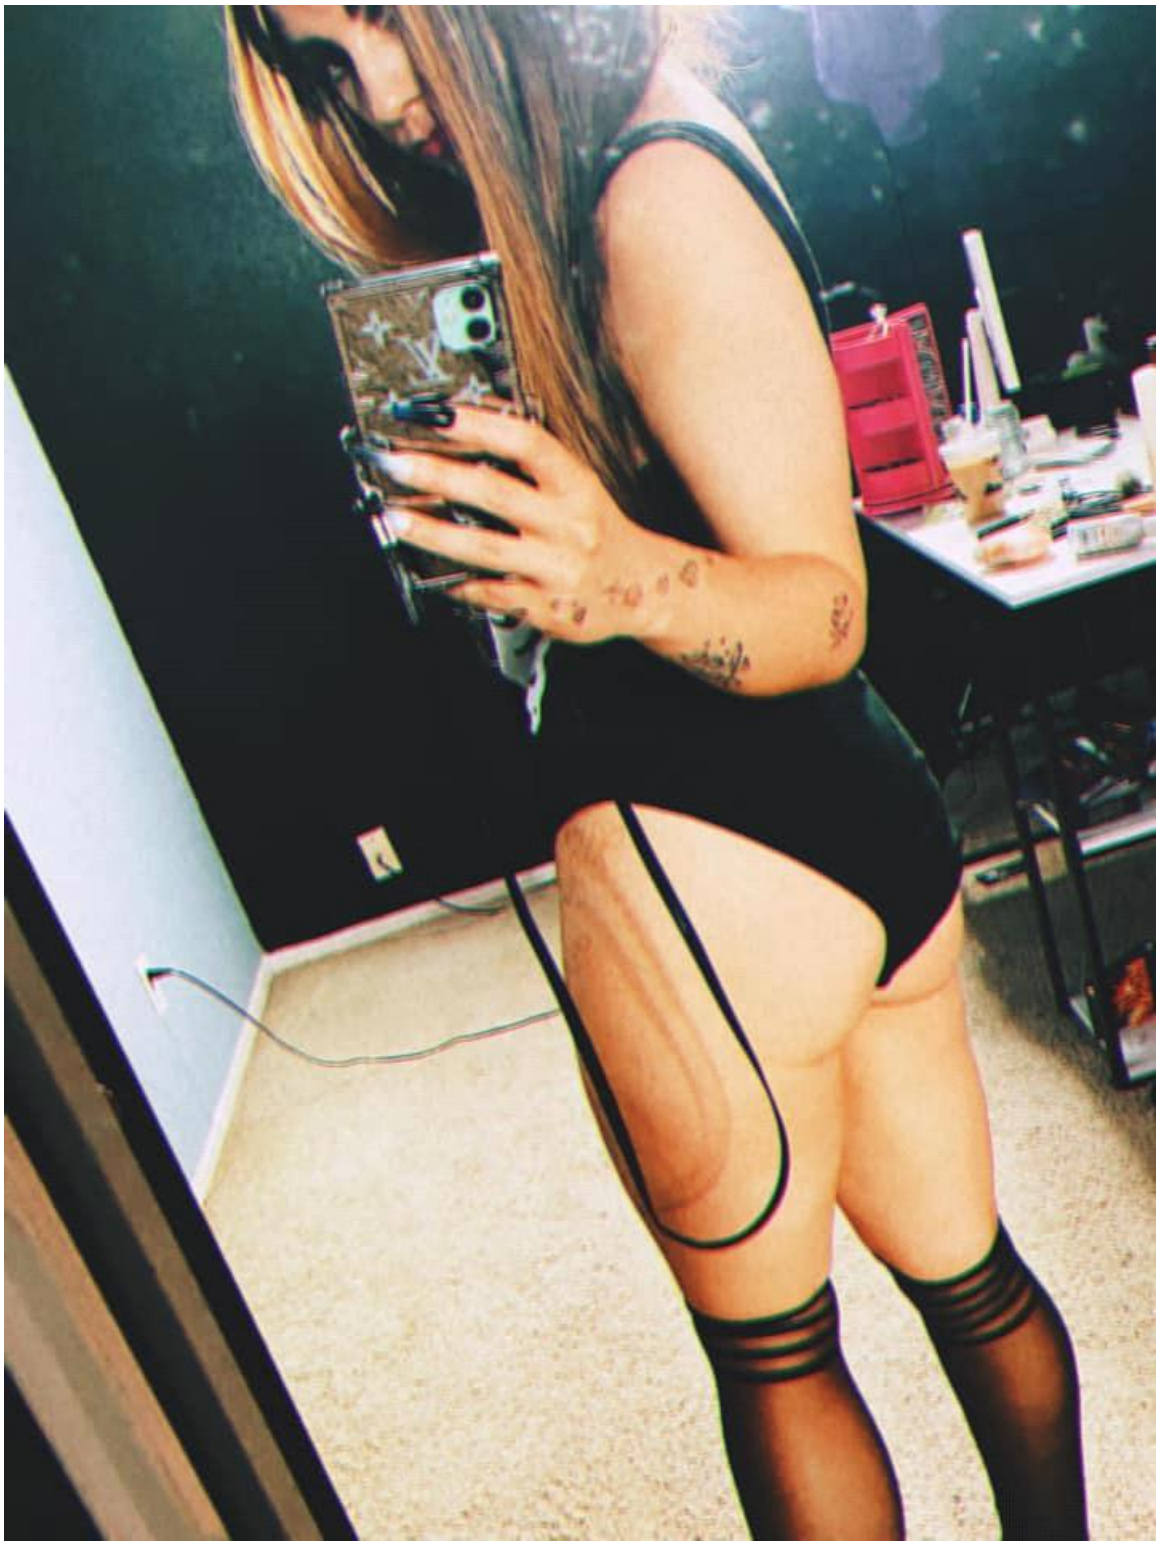
To dream of them, is a warning of some type of physical, spiritual or emotional danger.

As spirit animals, they represent diving into ourselves in time & self- discovery.

Summon crocodile & alligator spirit for guidance and wisdom at spiritual crossroads, in crisis or for general self- improvement guidance.

Crocodile & Alligator Legends

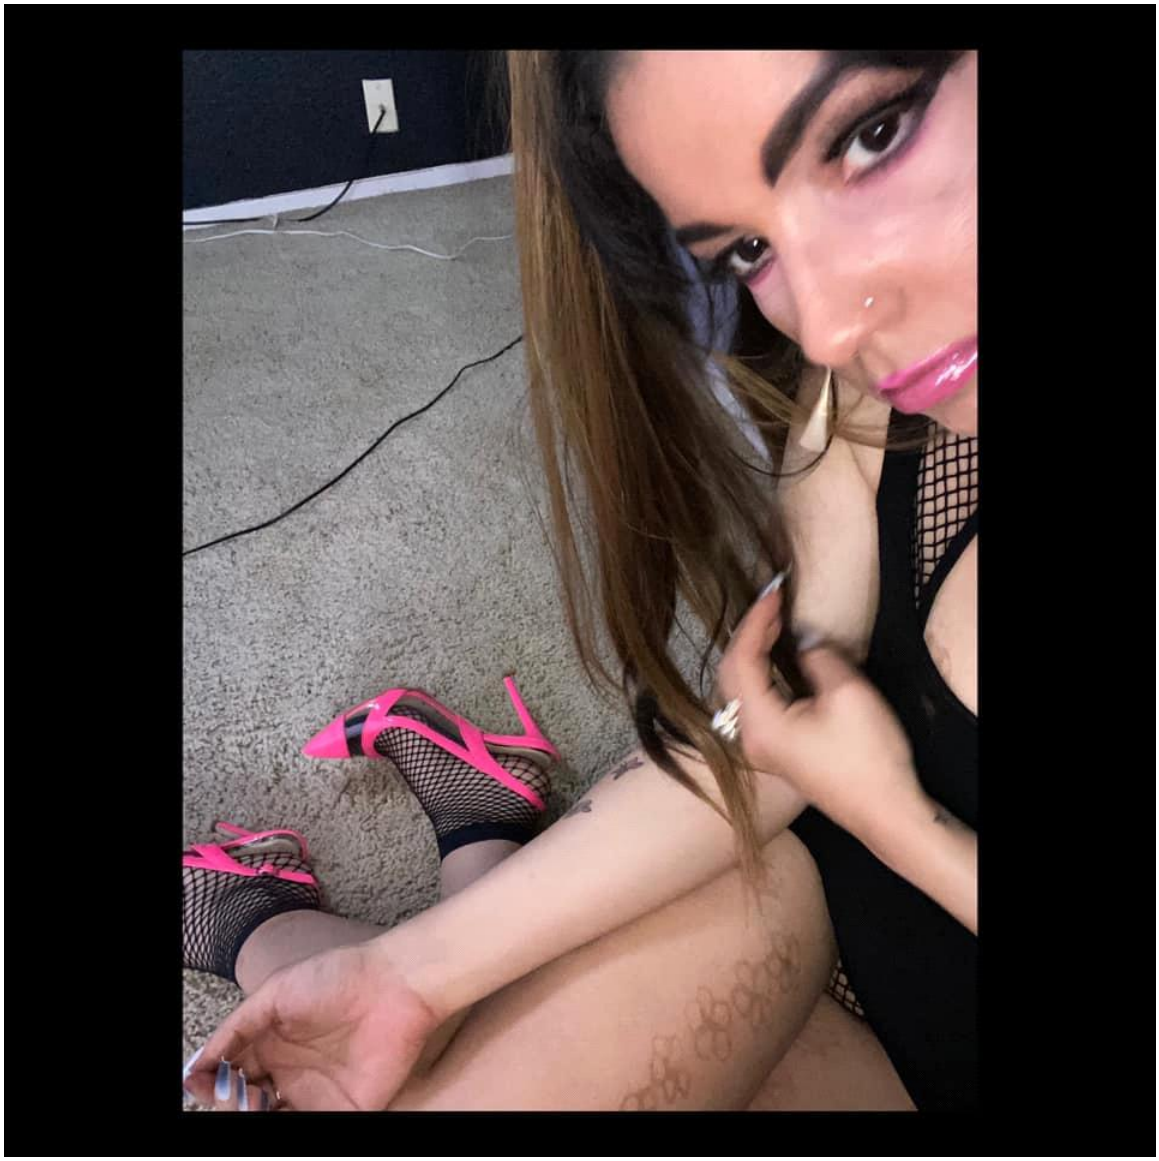
The Crocodile Goddess



Kourtney Kardashian is an excellent person that represents this energy. Because crocodiles & alligators are so beautiful, their skin is mimicked in patterns in display on fabrics and wallpapers.

The textures can also be made hard, durable and elegant- which i feel describes her style as well- like a coastal deep green and olive, black & white energy. She has a hard body too like one of these animals, which do not eat for pleasure.

Mostly the design is used on shoes, purses and jackets because the weight and depth of it is more harsh than most everyday fabrics. But, it is best worn in tropical or watery locations. She shares alot of healthy food and drink recipes, which brings life to the mind and body, life, passion and love.



The spirit of the crocodile & alligator is very royal, sexual, distinguishing & powerful. May this energy guard with you forever as we all stand in the spiral of light and life, twisting and forming, until we all have a chance to shower each other in divine magic and infinite inspiration.

My Dance Video

www.tiktok.com/@wishfire/video/6941227391813487877

All over the world, people kiss each other to show various expressions of love energy. There are many different types of kisses and ways to kiss and people have been kissing each other since ancient times. Because kisses are expressions of love and luck, they are a part of the paranormal. Not only can kisses be physical, but they can be spiritual as well- even enchanted. A kiss is said to carry the magic, the spark of love itself.

Below, I am going to go over the most popular kisses to date, as well as classic mythology, folklore and legends. In dreams, kisses represent wanting to become closer with someone- sort of like a magnetic pull, which can be mimicked through the cosmos- like the sun and moon, The sun and Earth, the planets- there are so many various holy reflections to name each kind- literally infinite light...

Supernatural Kisses

In fairytales, it is widely known that the female character generally plays the helpless rose and the male is the hero, the protector or the villian himself. This also represents the pull of emotions and spirit- like the moon over the water, making waves- some attractions are just supernatural and as of now, … cannot be fully harnessed... or understood yet. As like a kiss- which is filled with mystery and power.

In such tales, such as "Snow White," the main character falls under a sleeping spell and the only way to break it is by true love's kiss. Typically this involves the righteous judgment of a beautiful prince. This theme carries on in several more fairytales such as "Beauty & the Beast," "The Little Mermaid," so many more because it was the subconscious fantasy of women of the age and time, so it became widespread.

This is due to a lust for purity and distaste for the unholy. A prince represents royal power, protection and divine justice- while the villains are often crude, harsh, selfish and ugly monsters. This is amplified in legends in such a way that the characters are actually transformed into literal creatures, which shapeshift from the fire, like totems or tuplas. Because that's where the demons are from- the "moon" the darkside, the evil nature of humankind.

Supernatural Kisses

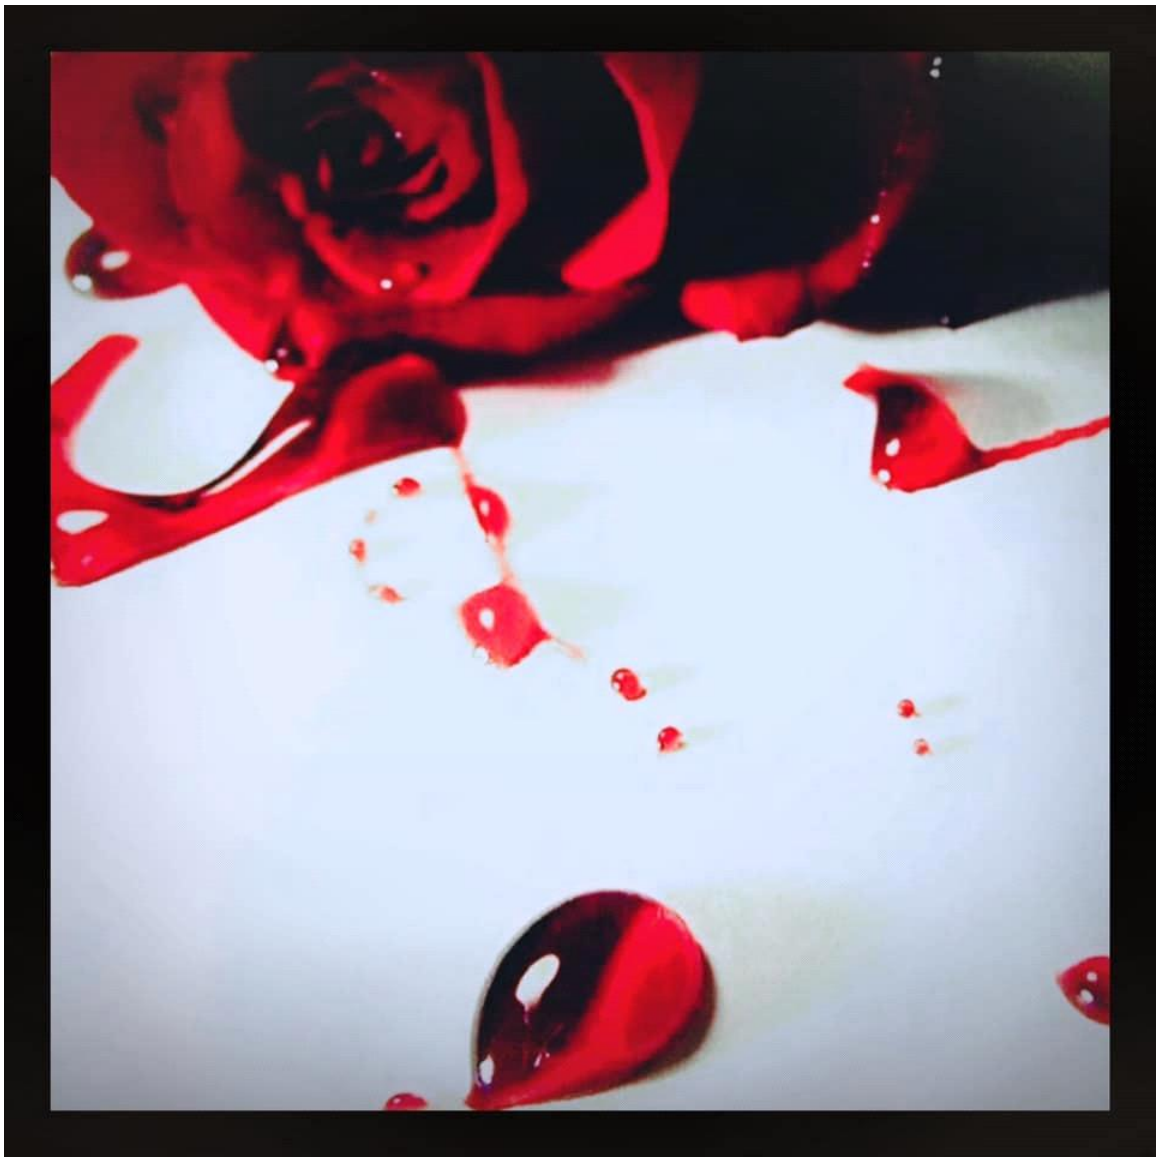
Meanwhile, in the light is love, truth, hope, fantasy, dreams- everything surreal and good, everlasting and good. This is just like the harmony one feels in tune with someone as they kiss. Like the fairytales- you can't just kiss anyone for it to be magical, rather it has to be special and unique. You also will have to decode someone else's soul, body mind, both or everything else possible, in order to understand the wisdom of kissing. The occult fascination our society has with love is incredible and enlightening.

Kisses create many other feelings besides that- they can create a euphoria, a freedom, a passion, inspiration, orgasms even. If someone is kissed without permission, it feels like a violation of your spirit and your spirit can actually be broken in time apart or your mind and heart- all sense of self by an unwelcome kiss as well. This shows you the god like power this simple action creates.

Kisses also mimic a sucking motion- which is the first instinct that we have as children, and animals as well- to feed on our mothers breasts for milk. Vampires grant immortality through blood kisses and gods kiss through special blessings- like holy water, flowers and other beautiful ways. Be careful who you kiss as well as mouths are so dirty and this could be another reason why people regarded kissing with such evil as disease and other terrible sickness is easily transferred this way.

Supernatural Kisses

A kiss should be granting life to that to whom it is given. Creation in some form is existence- luck, love, survival, passion, - all spiritual life can begin here. This is the turning point of our bodies and nature, all connected in an immortal design and pattern in complete satisfaction. If we were mirrored to be as the gods themselves, or at least the men- then why is a kiss so important and special and what does it really mean?



A kiss of death is a curse that can be brought on to someone for badluck and terror. in time. Timing is very important in kissing as well, bad timing can ruin everything or create a strange energy, which can't be replaced or renewed. A French kiss is the most famous style and it's one in which the tounge is used. Just like sexual positions- there is a name for every movement. Most love Gods rule kisses but, Apollo himself or anyone gifted by the tounge is probably an excellent kisser as well.

There are spiritual kisses too- such as angel kisses (which can be felt like wind on your neck and body), freckles on someone can be said to be from being sunkissed and if you kiss someone that is meant for you- you can unlock extraordinary worlds, all starting from the point, source of origin- from darkness and light- from a void of nothing, born in beauty... by the Gods...

Blessed by Apollo Xx

Sun Goddess Dance Playlist

In spiritual history, Apollo is the Greeks most popular sun god. He is known as the master of poetry, music, healing, prophecy and so much more, concerning the spotlight. Apollo is one of many gods in history who represented this energy design. The Aztecs also worshiped with high regard and importance, the convergence of light and knowledge onto the physical body in public spaces, and they personified this by the use of blood: which represented the mana of life and it's connection to time, seasons and movement. The Egyptians are also a very popular culture, who were known to create symbols to invoke the sun's power; such as the ankh, the scarab beetle (which stood for regeneration, resurrections and eternal life), which all signal a full circle, prophecy fullfilled- a completion and a wholeness of time as a spiritual and real concept, entwined together in harmony- creating death and silence and understanding again and again.

People mostly associate the sun with desert, tropical and other hot places- because that is what touches our spirits everyday in nature- outside in our natural world, which is also immortal and spiritual. Everyone wishes for the sun when things get dark. It's like reaching out to the radio to hear your favorite song to turn things around from the inside out of yourself with warmth. That'd why music is the symbol for life- it runs in circles like the sun and nourishes the seeds inside of us of knowledge and bring wisdom in the right seasons.

When the sun touches you on your body, it is known as a sun kiss and when someone has a California tan- it is known as being sun kissed. The sun symbolizes dedication and healing because it is known to bring better days, happy times and the perfect setting for celebrations and happiness. People in California are known to be lucky as well and Apollo's two numbers are 7 and 9, which symbolize love and luck in numerology, the sun itself would represent the number one- like soul mate- sol mate- sol energy forever...

Fool me once, fool me twice

Are you death or paradise?

Now you'll never see me cry

There's just no time to die

No time to die, mmm

No time to die, ooh

There's just no time to die

Billie Eilish: The Sun Goddess

Apollo was also the God that became a super star in Heaven and Earth by making the first vampire. He cursed a man to never see daylight and the rest is written in history. Vampire's represent psychic energy, immortality, sexuality, being spellbound and enchanted, blood magick and so much more. They are known to be able to rise from the dead- but at night- sort of like the moon, which is the subconscious energy of the sun in a way.

When there is only one person that we think about and see in life, they are known to be the center of our universe, like the sun would be. The sun get's all the attention because not only does it posses a holy energy- it's also a deep and purely spiritual beauty, untainted, innocent and magnificent. The sun is known to bring the most luck when it is shining in all it's glory of goodness and success as well.

If you dream of the sun it is a very good omen. It is a sign of wealth, and spiritual blessings coming forth from the universe. If you can feel it, that's the sun hugging you and nurturing your body and soul. Call on the sun when you need some pure love. The sun has very, what we consider to be feminine qualities more so than masculine, in it's nurturing of the young, small animals and other precious spiritual and innocent life, but it is more frequently associated with masculine energy so we need a goddess. Selena Gomez: Goddess of Expression

Selena Gomez: Goddess of Expression

According to the dictionary- The story of the tower of Babylon was as such; it was built in the land of Shinar (Babylonia) some time after the Deluge. The story of its construction, given in Genesis 11:1–9, appears to be an attempt to explain the existence of diverse human languages.

The fable says that a united human race in the generations following the Great Flood, speaking a single language and migrating eastward, agree to build a city and a tower tall enough to reach heaven. God, observing their city and tower, confounds their speech so that they can no longer understand each other, and scatters them around the world in offense.

Selena Gomez is a master artist and creates master pieces revolving around her tounge, her beauty and more. Her artistry is in music, cooking, language and communication. She is very gifted in the power of this observance.

Selena Gomez: Goddess of Expression

She encourages you to dance, find your own flow- unique beauty, celebrate your connections to the community that surrounds you in love and she expresses these pure desires through everything that she touches- with her heart, mind, soul, tounge and more.

She doesn't hold back what she feels, she speaks gracefully and fluently and reveals the truth in everything around her- which is a rare gift, which she shares like seeds with others in her songs, interviews and stories.

Selena Gomez: Goddess Of Expression

She has a tattoo that says the word: rare behind her ear because she puts her powers into words and shares them. Selena Gomez is a very good teacher at the art of grace and sadly for some; perfection and excellence, from the simple truth of her energy imprint that she creates! Which God loves truth, hence the parable of the fall of the tower, a symbol for the ego in the tarot. She is humble, but her light will shoot down the darkness like lightning in a storm, which is very close to the Heavens.

The art of expression is very important- because even though God struck down the tower- the people still recovered- learned more than they did before, separated, rebuilt the foundation of connection to ourselves and to each other, not separated by walls or anything, and that was the ladder to God- the letter of love- that was the truth, not the tower- built in power and arrogance and conceit! She's busy, ambitious and intelligent but, she still checks in with people - which I adore, just to share some of it.

Amen Xx

Lucy Hale: The Blackberry Goddess

Lucy Hale: The Blackberry Goddess

Blackberries are very dark in color, so deep and richly toned that they appear black in low lighting. For this reason, they have been compared by Christians and others to the forbidden fruit; secrets, hidden mana and dark beauty. Lucy is an actress and she has played alot of parts on t.v. that fit this characterization, probably due to her spiritual and physical beauty, which is the same type of energy.

She has a tattoo on her arm that says: "I love you." and it's the first thing you can see as a message from her, which i like because I also have a love tattoo on my arm! I noticed that she has a very fun and kind heart and she sort of just reminds me of blackberries right now. She has an ethereal glow and quality, which comes from inside, which is easy to read by those linked into the supernatural energy.

Lucy Hale: The Black Berry Goddess

Black Berries are very supernatural. They can represent beauty, if eaten at night because in the day time they are a much lesser shade and so looking weaker or less strong. She reminds me of the dark berry undertones in her energy fields, which looks different under lighting on the different scenes that she films. They can appear black, purple, blue, golds, oranges and brown- all shades and colors in between, even sometimes red as well.

In the paranormal world, stories have it that you shouldn't eat blackberries after Michaelmas Day because, St Michael, for whom the day is named- battled Lucifer and kicked him out of heaven, where he landed in hell- on a thorny blackberry bush. So angry was he, that he cursed the blackberry bush and ensured its berries would taste foul from St Michaelmas Day onwards. I believe this is just a complicated explanation for what i just said as well in another form as interpretation- Lucifer as the morning light, lucifer as the jewel fallen from the crown of God and Lucifer the God of time and darkness, changing dusk to dawn- we see the sky bleeding to death from his sharp blades, fractured sides, wings & tounge, like a diamond fallen from the sky of a ring, broken promises...so much more...

Lucy Hale: The Black Berry Goddess

The fruit of the shadows and the night holds mysterious power over our hands, our crown chakras, our connection to source and is very important as a seed for health of our bodies as well. They have five petal flowers, which bloom in the springtime. five represents stars and satans sign is an upturned mirror star- which symbolizes the darkness of the future of the afterworld, dark desires, enchantments, illusions, dreams, seduction, temptations and even sometimes a feminine evil power.

Blackberries are also said to be a symbol for blood. As is the case that when we bleed, the blood in our veins starts as blues, purples and exposed to the oxygen- it will turn red. This is also like fire- burning at different temperatures, the nature of fire and also life- transformation and balance. This fruit is a very powerful spiritual and physical tool of desire, to balance the subconcious, conscious and power over the Earth and Heaven.

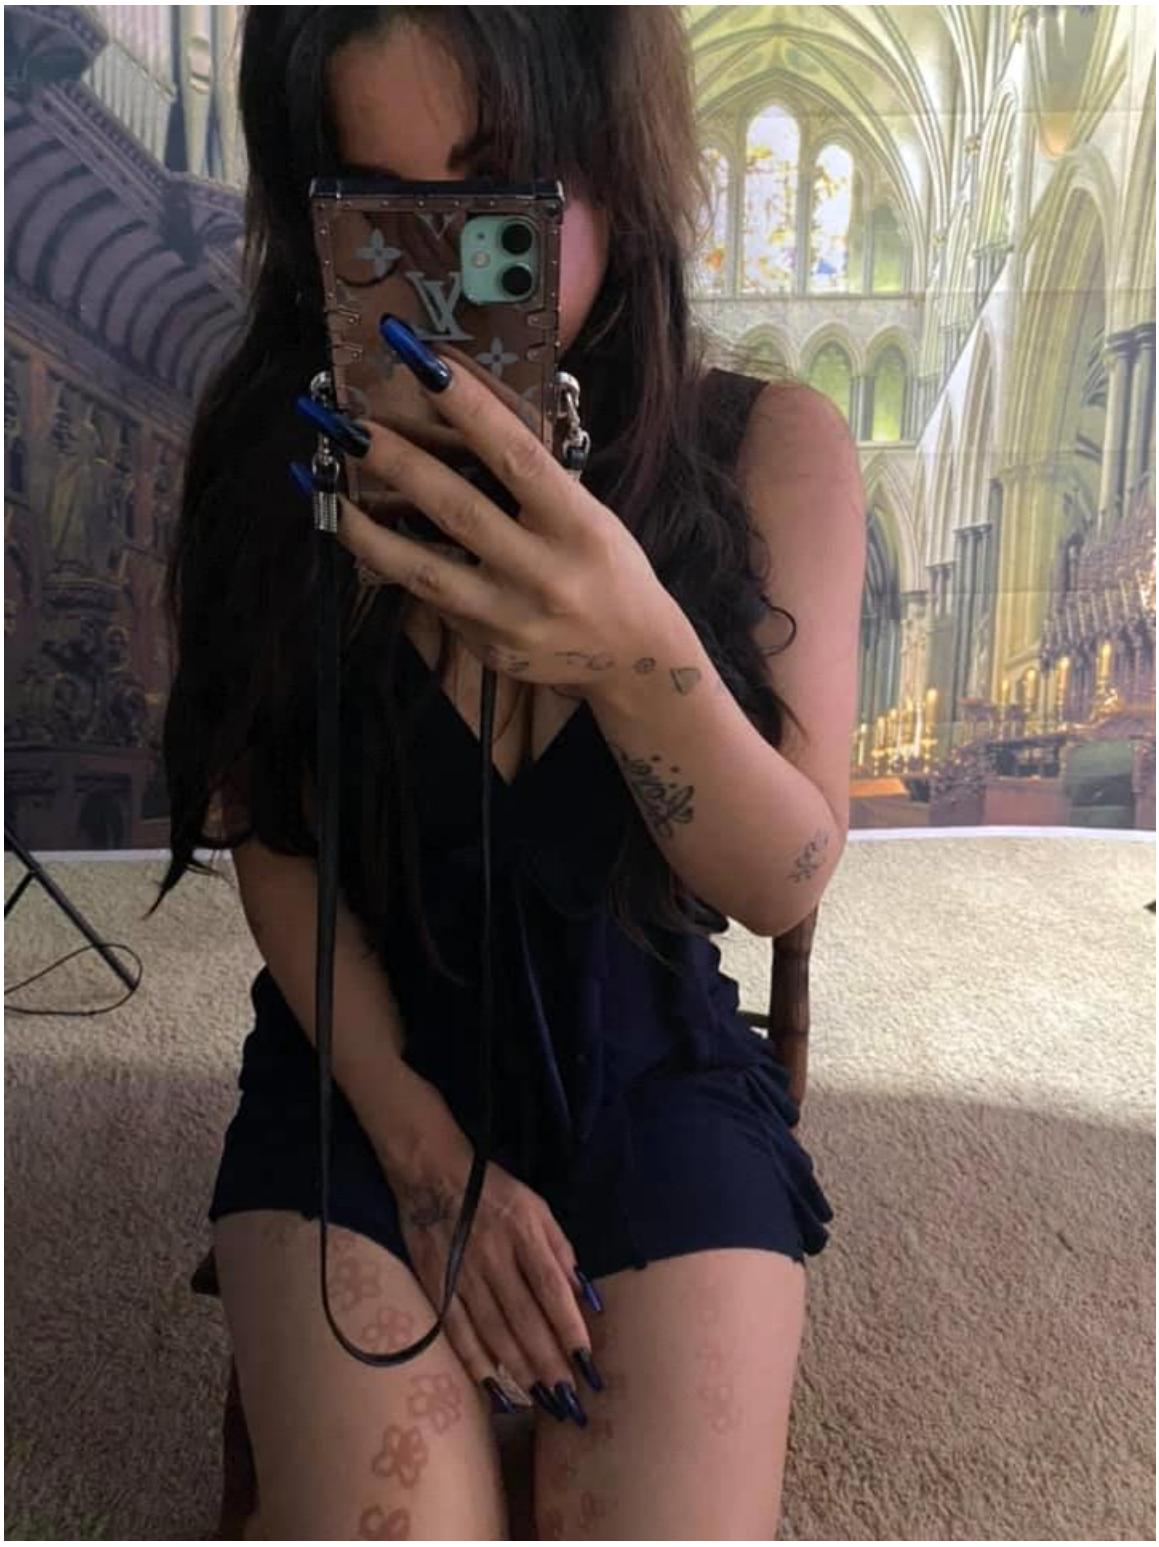
KODAK PORTRA 400
I thought I lost my favorite charm necklace like a year ago. Amazing the things you find if you actually clean up

Khloe Kardashian: Cactus Goddess



Legends of cactus span through time in a large oasis's of magic. Cactus is a prickly plant which usually lives in desert areas of the world. They grow prickly needles to warn predators away from the precious water & nutrients they hold inside. Cactus water can also be drank in different variations and purposes. The fruit of the cactus is known as the pear and some grow beautiful flowers as well. Cactus plants symbolize survival, overcoming hardships & also beauty as well.

All of these qualities and more remain spiritually in people as well, like mirrors to match the truth of enlightenment. Khloe Kardashian is an example of a beautiful influencer who is successful in career but, vulnerable when it comes to love. Her relationship stories are widely known in our modern culture. This makes up like a spiritual energy shell, which can be placed over someone for protection and love. Also, Cactus spirit crystal quartz is an example of her energy; it is light pinks and lavender shades in prickly points but, also retaining a very sensual and feminine design.

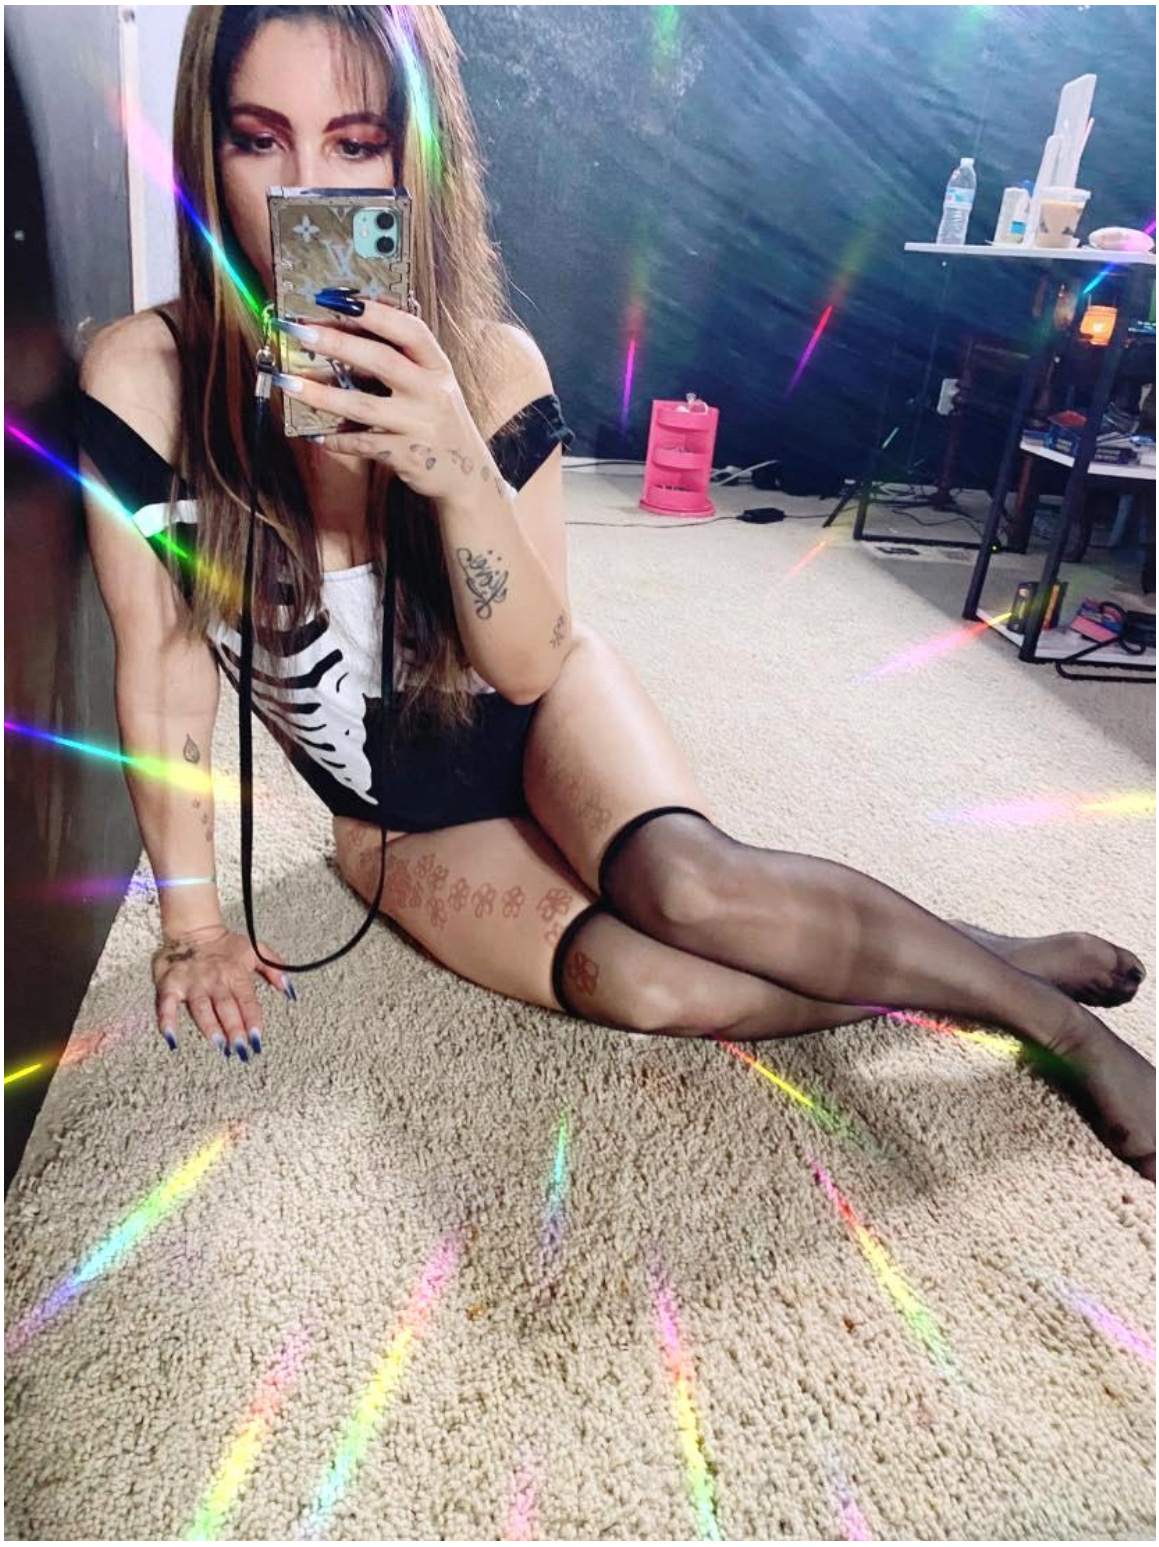
In order for flowers to bloom on cactus, they have to be in a flourishing environment where there is moisture that's not to overbearing- such as light rainfall, hail or filtered sunlight. She is an example of someone that is flourishing spiritually around others beauty & gentleness (which one has to have to touch a cactus- without getting hurt.) A cactus can really cause severe damage if one does not take the time to understand the pins and needles are beautiful, but sharp as well. When someone doesn't drink enough water and other factors, they can sometimes get migraines (which I also suffer & at first you get sharp pins and needles pains) and Khloe is well known to experience migraines too!

Khloe has a really unique style as well that reminds me of cactuses. Culturally, her fashion seems to be inspired by city life in the sun- sharp needle like nails- sharp cuts and edges in her body and face and also a curvy shape like most cactuses I see- they are so inviting except for the plant claws they have. She also wears bright, or trendy items and accessories a lot- against color blocks of fabric and her aura is really green right now- which is a spiritually healing & nurturing tone.



Khloe Kardashian: Cactus Goddess

Cactus in dreams is a good omen for overcoming spiritual trials. In Brazil for example, the people will ask for signs from God and they can be read in energy of the cactus. If it blooms and thrives- it signals good fortune, and the opposite would mean a terrible thing. In magic, it is used to reverse the draining of finances, overcome long periods without money and attracting wealth. It is a protector energy, which guards from draining life forces. Cactus flower can be worn as a perfume as well to the same purpose spiritually.

Even though cactus is commonly thought of as a plant that dwells in deserts and harsh climates like the city, they can really thrive in jungle and tropical areas as well- with the right mixture of time and weather. Cactus is known to be rather hard to get to bloom flowers, and very tepid but, in some areas of the world they really flourish in beauty. Jungle energy is also very royal and divine- which matches hers!

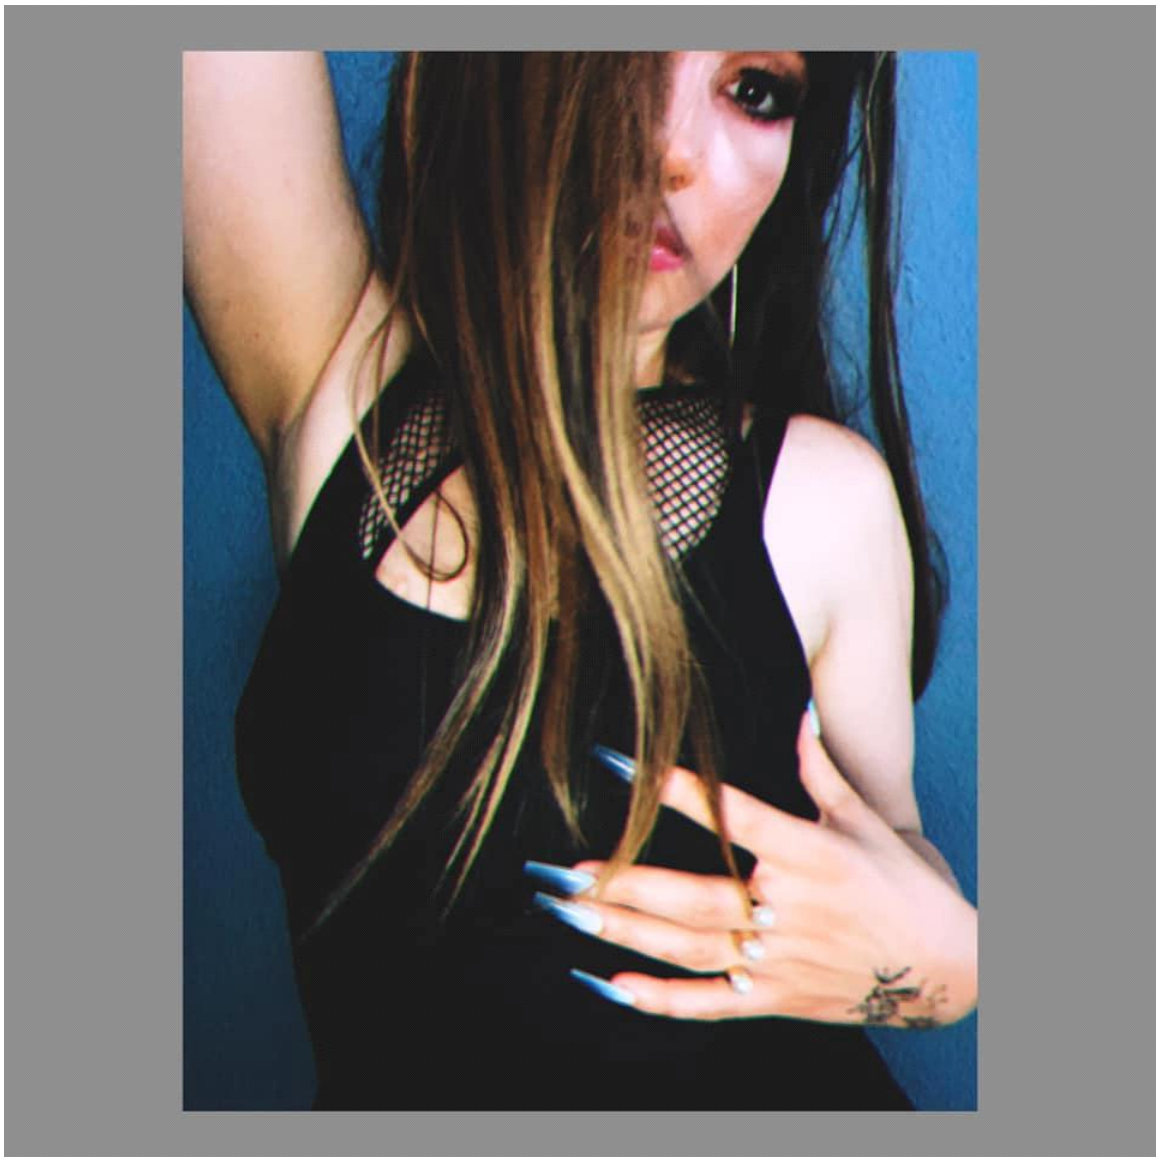
Taylor Swift: Songbird Goddess

Taylor Swift: Songbird Goddess

Many birds are said to be messengers to the gods; this is because they are similar to angels in animal form. The dove is known to be the favorite bird of the Christians, which delivered the message to God that the floods had been fallen away and there was dry land again. Because of this- they came to symbolize love, hope & fertility.

As a bird, you are born from an egg in a nest, most likely in a tree or other wild area which she seems to perfer. Birds also like to roam and migrate, and without them, there would be a lack of abundance of plants and agriculture, as they help to spread seeds throughout the world.

Taylor is known to be a very strong voice in the music industry, and has from a very young age- making her an expert in this business. Many birds are known for the angelic, piercing and enlightening tunes that they sing.



Taylor Swift: Songbird Goddess

In legends and stories around the globe, a bird can feel even the simplest of vibrations in the atmosphere, causing them to migrate away from terrible weather and storms. They are an ancient indicator of peace or trouble- depending on their behavior. It is very important to preserve all different types of bird sounds, species and more as they do easily go extinct due to even the most minor changes in the environment and climate.

Birds also have a very popular and common wild predator: the cat. Household cats kill so many birds per year and some do not even eat them. For example, hummingbirds biggest threat is a cat. This is important to note if you have cats, to not give them easy access to birds.

Birds are so divine that there are many immortal legends of them. One such tale is a bird called the Nightingale; which will only sing it's song at night. The owl is wise and everyone knows her song is going to stir the night.

Taylor Swift: Songbird Goddess

My favorite song by Taylor Swift;

"Daylight"

My love was as cruel as the cities I lived in

Everyone looked worse in the light

There are so many lines that I've crossed unforgiven

I'll tell you the truth, but never goodbye

I don't wanna look at anything else now that I saw you

I don't wanna think of anything else now that I thought of you

I've been sleeping so long in a twenty year dark night

And now I see daylight, I only see daylight

Luck of the draw only draws the unlucky

And so I became the butt of the joke

I wounded the good and I trusted the wicked

Clearing the air, I breathed in the smoke

Maybe you ran with the wolves and refused to settle down

Maybe I've stormed out of every single room in this town

Threw out our cloaks and our daggers because it's morning now

It's brighter now, now

I don't wanna look at anything else now that I saw you

(I can never look away)

I don't wanna think of anything else now that I thought of you

(Things will never be the same)

I've been sleeping so long in a twenty year dark night

(Now I'm wide awake)

And now I see daylight (daylight), I only see daylight (daylight)

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight

And I can still see it all (In my mind)

All of you, all of me (Intertwined)

I once believed love would be (Black and white)

But it's golden (Golden)

And I can still see it all (In my head)

Back and forth from New York (Sneaking in your bed)

I once believed love would be (Burning red)

But it's golden

Like daylight, like daylight

Like daylight, daylight

I don't wanna look at anything else now that I saw you

(I can never look away)

I don't wanna think of anything else now that I thought of you

(Things will never be the same)

I've been sleeping so long in a twenty year dark night

(Now I'm wide awake)

And now I see daylight (I see daylight), I only see daylight (Ah)

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight (Ah)

(And I can still see it all)

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight

(And I can still see it all, back and forth from New York)

I only see daylight, daylight, daylight, daylight

(I once believed love would be)

Like daylight

It's golden like daylight

You gotta step into the daylight and let it go

Just let it go, let it go

I wanna be defined by the things that I love

Not the things I hate

Not the things that I'm afraid of, I'm afraid of

Not the things that haunt me in the middle of the night

I, I just think that

You are what you love

Friendly Blessings, Love & Joy

Lyrics to

"The Bakery"

La, la, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

With a bow, tie ribbon, stop it

Eatin' all the rainbow cookies

Pies are flying through the roof

Not my first pick but I'll do it

Make the cash right so I can move quick

Out this shithole with a new whip

Cream on top and I'd approve it

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

(Pack it, box it, flip it, top it)

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

(Pack it, box it, flip it, top it)

My boss is mother Mary

Catch me slippin' through the concrete

Show no mercy, step right on me

Stiletto death, send me to purgatory

The bakery, tryna make some more

They expect me to stay when I should go

Grab the bag for when they cross the door

It ain't for me to roll it out

It's just for me to raise the dough

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

With a bow, tie ribbon, stop it

Eatin' all the rainbow cookies

Pies are flying through the roof

All the cherry, the way they all go

Knock 'em down like she a dodgeball

Little mess up and she's angry

One downfall, she blamed the whole team

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

(Pack it, box it, flip it, top it)

Pack it, box it, flip it, top it

(Pack it, box it, flip it, top it)

The bakery, tryna make some more

They expect me to stay when I should go

Grab the bag for when they cross the door

It ain't for me to roll it out

It's just for me to raise the dough

The bakery, tryna make some more

They expect me to stay when I should go

Grab the bag for when they cross the door

It ain't for me to roll it out

It's just for me to raise the

La, la, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la, la

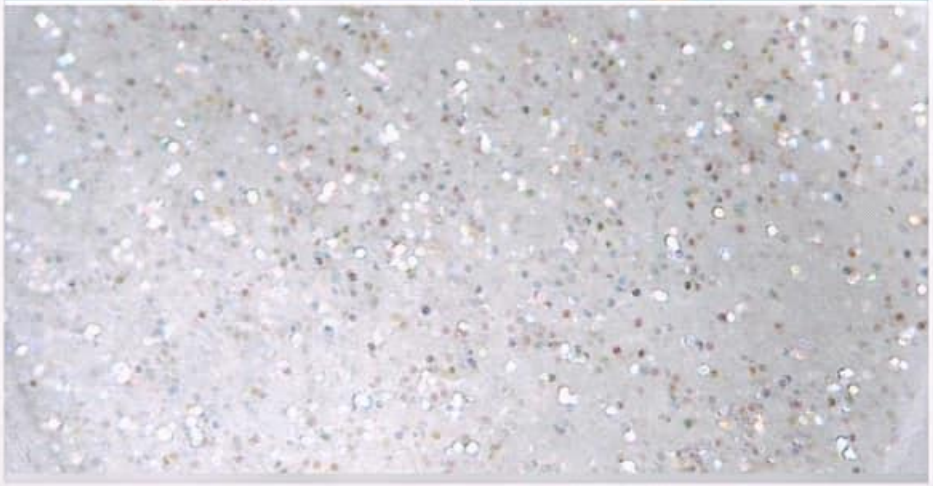
Melanie Martinez: Cotton Candy Goddess

Cotton candy is a sugary and colorful food, made of sugar and whipped into various popular shapes such as ice cream cones, clouds, teddy bears and more. They represent entertainment and art, like at the circus- where they are consumed by the members of the audience. Melanie has a history with sweets, and has a bright array of tattoos covering her body, which represent the importance of happy memories especially in beauty and harmony.

Cotton candy was re-invented in 1897 when a dentist named William Morrison collaborated with a confectioner by the name of John C. Wharton. Together, they created a machine that spun heated sugar through a screen into unique designs. You can create any shape or shade with this candy thread, as you can imagine.

Sugar is another symbol of a love goddess, especially on a special day where someone gets to go to a circus, festival or other American festivity. Cotton candy is usually eaten in the spring and summer, mimicing the bright colorful flowers blooming, and colors of the sky in a long day which burst into life, filling the soul with a burst of sugary inspiration.

Sugar blessings & protection eternal



Kendall Jenner is a supermodel and fashion icon who leads a fantasy life that exists in photographs. Her style is timeless and story book modern & classic. If you believe in the concept of expression through energy, especially through the eyes- than she is the perfect example. If you have ever heard the saying, "She is the apple of my eye" she is definitely fit to that like a glove because she gathers alot of attention for her beauty.

Apples represent alot of different things. For one, they are found in many various shades and varieties- so, widespread that they can be found almost anywhere there is food or even growing on trees in the land and wilderness. They have a deep spiritual significance, which is immortalized in artwork, expressed in music and dance, spiritual foundations and so much more.

Apples represent luxury, wealth, feminine power, knowledge and especially if they are sugary- love & passion. Some say the apple is the symbol for Aphrodite herself- due to when you cut apart an apple- there is a star, or pentagram with seeds in the center which represents the power of life- all the elements in essence, much like a regeneration of love and light itself. Other people feel that the apple was a wicked tempting thing, which broke apart relationships with the divine, by sacred knowledge of magic, illumination and somehow channeling spiritual information from the trees themselves- which are said to be immortal.

Kendall Jenner: Candy Apple Goddess

In fairytales, apples represent eternity being poisoned and tainted. They are frequently the subject of an evil entity who wishes to poison young, enchanting and gorgeous people with their dark wisdoms. For example, the apple was said to be the forbidden fruit of the bible, which Satan, as a serpent whispered temptations into the ears of the youthful Adam and Eve from the tree of Knowledge, itself. Also, in the tale of "Snow White," she is tricked into eating a poisoned apple by her evil rival.

As a perfume, Apple will bring in fresh energy and wisdom. Apple energy is very crisp and refreshing and brightens up the skin and mind like a light. (Illumination) Apples are a main ingredient in love potions. An old superstition is that if a young woman twists off the top stem of an apple while reciting the alphabet, it will break at the mention of the first letter of their lovers' name.

Apple seeds have a lot of power in vitality. If you eat apple seeds, you will be enlightened by the suns energy (which is to nurture and protect from darkness) Apple is the best smelling fruit for a summer day- because of the ripest taste on your tounge, when you eat an apple it is juicy, delicious and you can find any flavor to please you for your desires.

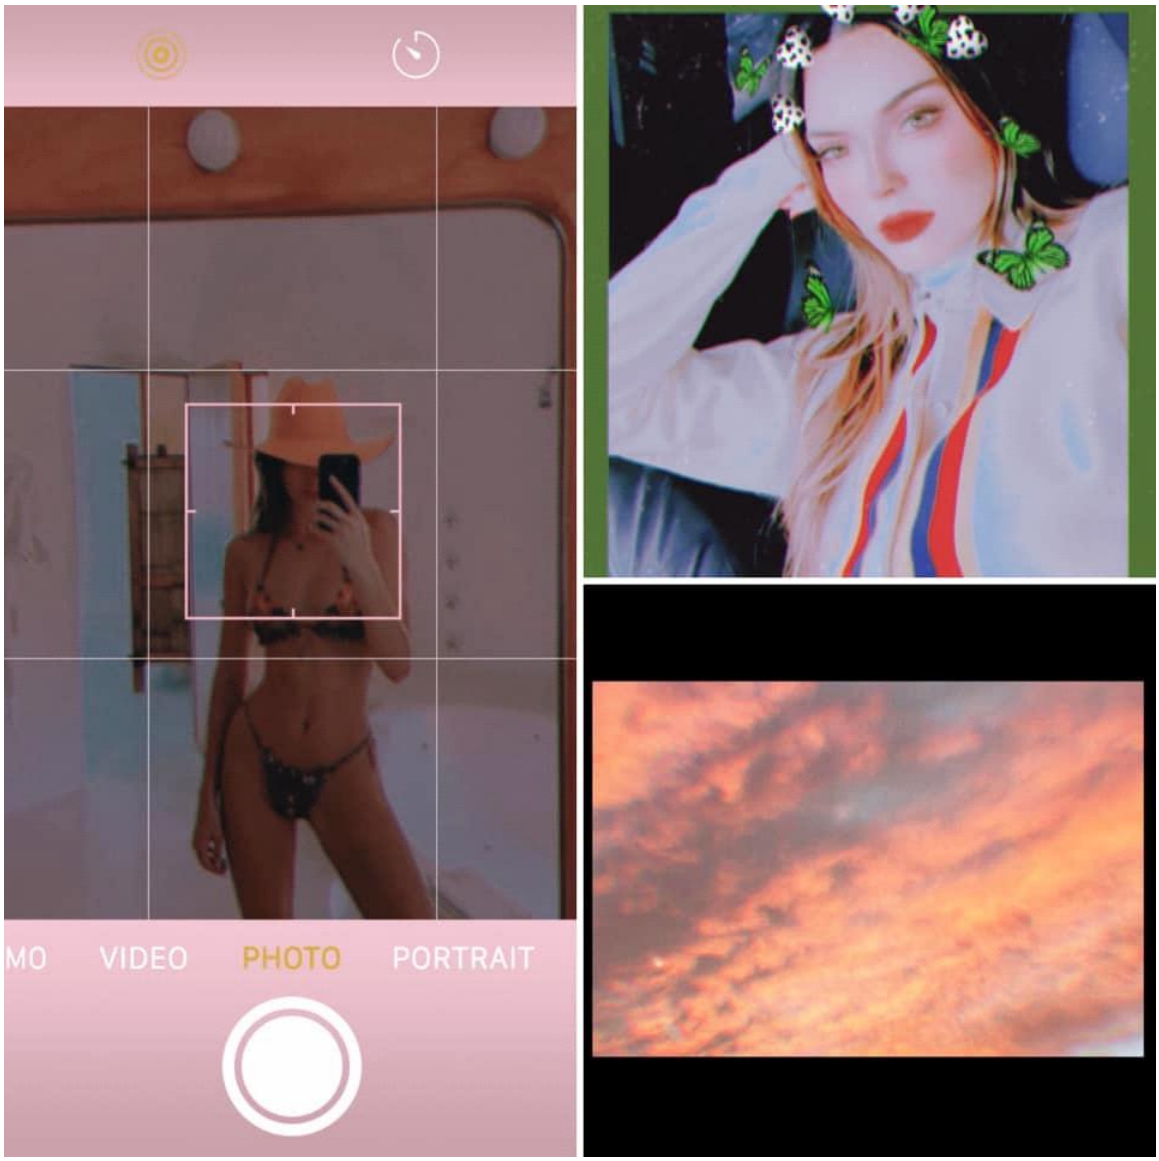
Kendall Jenner: Candy Apple Goddess

Another interesting point about Apples in history, is the use of them around books, places of knowledge and sacred worship of deities; such as-: Aphrodite, Freyja, Lucifer, Hera & Athena. There are also several Gods who, have left behind a legacy by the magick of the tree itself by attaching theirselves to it's roots; or legacy.

With apple, you have limitless power to provide and protect others with holy knowledge which others do not possess. This is especially due in important situations; such as those in power to Heavenly people and places, which are destined to supernaturally exist in cosmic order and Genesis, first before God and all the others; as a representation of our finest achievements and celebrations!

Apples are also frequently given to teachers and academic professionals as they represent experts in certain fields- chosen especially by many goddesses of the past, for their intellect and honor of good service to people, both frequently and without burden to heavy to bear (the representation).

Also, because of their shape- the apple can represent a woman's body- with it's curvature, tempting nature and seducing spell it casts over you, in it's ultimate form of completion and prestige. Apples are bitten with the teeth and devoured as a symbol of the serpent who drank the blood of immortality, simultaneously while casting out all unknown dark mysteries from paradise,- where only the most pure in form can reside.



Kendall Jenner: Candy Apple Goddess

A popular treat on Halloween is a candied apple and Halloween is a holiday in which we celebrate by dressing up to express ourselves to others by our bodies as the gates to the eyes. In spirit, the Holiday represents the art of the costume: or that which exits in time by predestined circumstance rooted in our lives as a cultural and religious mark of solitude and independence from the beginning of existence (as the seed becomes the apple- it slowly moves farther away from God and family into another world- sprouting into the sun and then releasing flowers and fragrance as a mixture of springtime fertility and primal timing can begin) At the same time- it signals the ending of one world and transformation into the next, while finally the apple is devoured as like in Hell, by gnawing until the seeds die and bloom again. In fact, it's Eve- or the night herself which tempts death through her doors, perhaps by turning her hands away from God, in order to shield her eyes from the sun as she replants them for the future, gaining the ultimate knowledge of creation- a power much more important than a mortal can bear.

A game that is played in popular tradition during Halloween is called Bobbing for Apples. It's one in which you put your hands behind your back and try to eat an apple, which is floating in water, before anyone else can- to prove you have the best skill and luck, and favor of the gods. You should be blindfolded by silk and it should be red and tied over your eyes to do it exactly right in symbol of love, and using other colors for supernatural games as well.

Candy apples smell extra delicious and their scent can attract vibrant and fruitful wealth to one's door. They are tied to prestige, wealth and honor of both supernatural and natural lands. Apples are mainly water in nature and most juices are made with added fruit sugars, for the taste we prefer right now as a culture is like a honey flavor, which is easy to swallow and digest, both into our conscious and subconscious as well.

If anyone was like me you probably had food nightmares before. They usually come from eating sweets or sour foods before bed. There are also food allergies which scare people because it is so easy to die from them. There are a lot of reasons you could be afraid of food, such as traumatizing events, irrational fears or cultural conditioning. Food has very ancient origins.

Persephone, Goddess of the Underworld

Well Persephone is the Greek goddess of the springtime and queen of the underworld as well. She was deceived into eating pomegranate seeds in the afterlife by Hades, who was in love with her- so she never got to unsee that world, where she remains- but returns as a "bringer of light" (light = knowledge), simultaneously, in turn becoming the 'destroyer of death" as well.

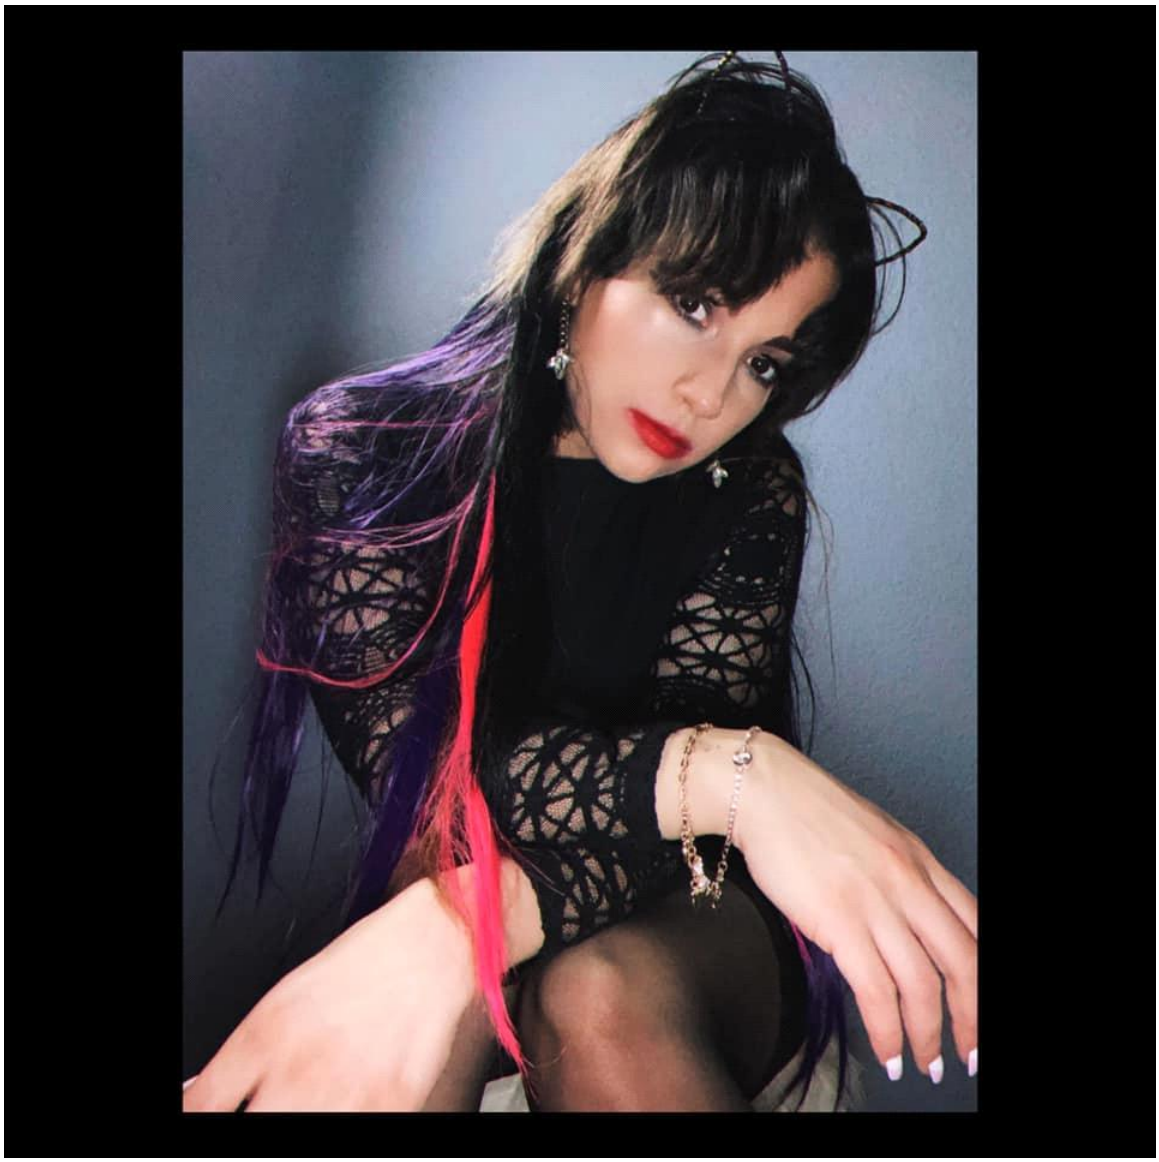
She receives the souls of this world and guides them into the next by her wisdom. She has control over Earth & vegetation, soil & dirt. This is because her spirit was born the day that she was picking flowers in a field and was kidnapped by Hades for her beauty & grace. Her mother is Demeter- the goddess of grains, and agriculture- she is said to also be the creator of winter and Hades is accredited with the power of a great golden light- like the sun.

The Olive Tree in Athens Greece

The olive tree represents the Greek goddess Athena, because people were inspired to create a beautiful city in her honor and she liked best the idea of an olive tree and so one was sprouted and grew into an immortal spiritual gift of knowledge and peace to be seen on a hill.

Olive was a very popular fruit of the time and was enjoyed across the regions in various locations. They are so well known now to this day you can easily find them at any grocery store for very inexpensive prices. The legends continue onto our celebration dinners like thanksgiving, where they are served as appetizers.

It's a fun tradition for children to place an olive on each finger and eat them one by one. That is because the luck of their size is that they fit so perfectly in the palm of the hands and on the fingertips. I used to get in trouble for over eating them and loosing my appetite afterwards.



Sugar Curses by Love Goddesses

If you are a particularly cruel person- you may judge people by your eyesight. You may criticize people for acts of love they do through their own selves, expressions which you may not understand or tolerate. If you are a particularly superficial person or mad, for example it may be like weighing food by your eyes. You may use people for personal enjoyments often or maybe you can find the balance of pleasure instead. You may judge by your tounge and you may offend the spirit of love which will try to fix you and heal you in truth, but you may poison yourself with your own eyes, your anger, & your blood will boil as you drink in sugar curses from your own hands that God made you.

Be careful for what you judge by your eyes can destroy your body and mind or build you up. It can be toxic, the choices that we make and they manifest from the simplest desires- which can be compared as well spiritually to food and the way we react and it triggers us can teach us a lot about who we are as well, together and apart. Because a lot can be said about food- but the truth is- our philosophy on food is a part of our spiritual growth, emotional wisdom and personal development.
